Bottomless mimosa cocktails are at the top of the list of summer specials. Mimosas are an integral part of any brunch, and Eat My Trip is looking to make sure that brunches this summer have more than enough mimosas to keep each gathering going. The café's mimosas are infused with the essence of fresh oranges and Spanish Cava and are priced at 12.90 euros for bottomless mimosas or 18.90 for a 1 litre jar of mimosa. Guests can drink as many mimosas as they want in one hour. Continuing the trend, Eat My Trip is also offering bottomless Aperol Spritz this summer. These are priced at 14.90 for a bottomless and 19.95 for a 1 litre jug.

On the food side, Eat My Trip has a wide selection of healthy bowls to choose from this summer. "Embrace a nourishing culinary adventure with Eatmytrip's selection of vibrant and wholesome bowls," says Eat My Trip. "Bursting with nutritious ingredients, these delectable creations offer a perfect balance of flavours, catering to health-conscious food enthusiasts and ensuring a guilt-free indulgence."

Busy locals and travellers who are only in town for a brief period need not miss out on Eat My Trip's summer specials. The café has an extensive list of convenient takeaway options. They recognise the needs of busy visitors, so they have made it a point to offer a wide array of tantalising culinary options.

Anyone can enjoy a quick, tasty meal on the go ? all it takes is a quick visit to Eat My Trip. They have delicious sandwiches and other excellent treats, all of which can be found on their incredibly diverse menu. The café's proximity to one of Barcelona's most beautiful parks means that visitors can purchase a meal from Eat My Trip and then enjoy it while experiencing one of the most beautiful outdoor spaces in the city.

The idea behind Eat My Trip Brunch & Coffee is to change the way people think of brunch in Barcelona. The café does away with queues and overcrowded seating space and encourages visitors to take their brunch to the park. The park and the café are incorporated with each other, making it easy to enjoy both without missing out on anything. Eat My Trip does also have a seating space where a visitor can sip bottomless mimosas all day in a cosy little space. The café is fast becoming an essential part of the Barcelona experience, and people have taken to online forums to talk about their experiences in the form of rave reviews.

"My friend and I were visiting Barcelona for a few days, and we found out about this brunch place due to its great reviews!" says a review from a traveller named Nora. "First of all, we loved the food (I had Turkish eggs, and my friend had Canadian pancakes). Our drinks were very good as well ? I had a Chai Latte, and it was perfect (not too sweet, and very aromatic). Second of all, we mentioned we were a bit in a rush (we had tickets to visit Casa Vicens, which is nearby) and they actually prepared our order quickly in order to accommodate us. Lastly, the dogs were very cute, calm and even playful if you'd go to them to pet them. We are very happy we had brunch here, and we would definitely recommend!"
