For those seeking a unique touch, the talented team can create custom arrangements tailored to individual preferences and sentiments.

One of the pillars of Broadway Florists & Flower Delivery is their unwavering commitment to selecting only the freshest and highest quality flowers. Every bloom is carefully chosen for its beauty and longevity, ensuring that each arrangement arrives in its most vibrant state. The professional and caring staff members are dedicated to serving all floral needs with passion and expertise. With their help, customers can find the perfect floral expression that speaks to their hearts. Each gift is thoughtfully presented and personalized with a heartfelt message, adding an extra touch of sincerity and warmth.

The legacy of Broadway Florists & Flower Delivery spans almost a century, with a rich history rooted in family and tradition. The business was established in 1923 by Ernest Cholakis, who arrived in Canada in 1922. Broadway Florists flourished under Ernest's guidance at Portage Avenue and Smith Street. His five sons, John, Harry, Paul, Chris, and Leo, all contributed to the success of the flower shop and greenhouses at different times. The family takes immense pride in the 99 years of business and the warmth they have brought to people's hearts. The knowledge and expertise passed down through generations have contributed to the shop's stellar reputation and the ability to create exceptional floral experiences.

Broadway Florists & Flower Delivery stands as a go-to destination for flowers and gifts for all occasions. Whether it's a birthday, anniversary, graduation, or any special event, their wide selection caters to diverse preferences and sentiments. From elegant bouquets to captivating plants, each creation is crafted with passion and personalized care. The dedicated team at Broadway Florists & Flower Delivery understands that every order is unique, and deserving of individual attention and a touch of personalization.
