June 30, 2023 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Ellis-Lopez Travel, a Germantown, MD based chauffeured transportation company, serving Montgomery County MD and Washington DC, is happy to announce they are donating a generous percentage of all commissions earned directly towards the "Closing the Gap Scholarship Fund" of Clark Atlanta University (CAU) that has the purpose of alleviating student debt. The company calls this the "travel multiplier" because clients can book their travel plans and at the same time have the satisfaction of freeing students from student debt. Jerry Ellis, founder of the travel agency, is an alumnus of CAU and has dedicated his life towards solving the problem of student debt.

"It is an honor to be supporting Clark Atlanta University's Closing the Gap Scholarship Fund," said Jerry Ellis, founder of Ellis-Lopez Travel Partners, and CAU alumnus. "It is because of the financial support I received as a student at CAU that I have dedicated my business to making a difference in the lives of students, who are struggling with student debt."

The Closing the Gap Scholarship Fund is an initiative that has the goal of decreasing student debt by providing financial aid to students wanting to complete their education. Ellis-Lopez Travel is providing a way for supporters of Clark Atlanta University to contribute to the scholarship fund by booking travel services through <https://caugives.com>. Clients can become a travel multiplier by simply booking hotel, flight, or car rental through the Ellis-Lopez Travel website. Jerry Ellis is delighted whenever his company is able to help people get to the place where they want to be.

In another recent review, Mary K. also gave them five stars and said, "This company is absolutely fantastic. new, clean cars, good drivers, and perfect timing all for a reasonable price! We had horrible delays enroute home on a recent trip and Jerry kept constant communication with us so that even with an overnight delay I wasn't stressed about ensuring my ride home. I recommended this company to my father-in-law who has used them several times already in just a month! Will forever work with Jerry on any future transportation needs."
