Houston-based party equipment rental service Jump Monkey's Party Rental has announced the launch of a new website and updated inventory for the 2023 season.

Jump Monkey's Party Rental can provide all types of inflatable attractions and party supplies that Houston residents need to celebrate special occasions with their families, friends, coworkers, and neighbors. The company's range of party rentals includes bounce houses, combo bouncers, water slides, games, tables and chairs, and concessions, all offered at competitive prices and with the assurance of reliable on-time delivery.

The company prides itself on offering commercial-grade inflatables that are cleaned and disinfected after every rental. To help Houston residents pick the right bouncer or combo house for their event, the new website has detailed listings for each including relevant information such as the setup area required, actual size, number of attendants and outlets required, and the age group the inflatable is ideal for. Website visitors can also browse through the top-selling attractions of the month to find out more about the trending rentals that the city's residents find most appealing.

The new website launch also brings with it a simple online reservation system. Booking a rental is as simple as browsing through the inventory and adding one's choice to the cart. Next, customers can check the availability of their chosen rental for the day of the event, select a party start time, select a party end time, or a multi-day or overnight event, and make the payment online. The staff arrives 1 to 4 hours before the scheduled start on the day of the event to allow for plenty of setup time.

"Our mission has always been to provide the best and most fun inflatable and party rentals to the communities across Houston," says the spokesperson for Jump Monkey's Party Rental. "Everything from the quality of the rentals to the booking and setup experience has been finetuned to take the stress of planning an exciting event off your shoulders. While you cater to the guests, our rentals will make sure they are kept occupied and are having a great time!?

Jump Monkey's Party Rental more than lives up to its promises to Houston residents. The admiration it has received is clearly visible on its Google Business Profile which currently boasts a perfect overall rating of 5.0 out of 5.0 from 10 reviews. Reviewers note the company's professional and friendly delivery crew, their swiftness and efficiency in setting up the inflatables, and the responsive customer service from the office staff.

A recent review says, "So impressed with this company! They were super flexible as we had to make several changes to our reservation! They were willing to make suggestions and were patient as we asked a million questions. They were prompt, professional, and very affordable. I called around the area and they were the best price I could find. They provided delivery, set up, training, and take down. Call them! They will make your kids' party an amazing experience and hassle-free for the parents!?"

One Houston parent writes, "We will definitely use Jump Monkey's Party Rental for all of our inflatables bounce house rentals and water slide rentals in Houston from now on. Their service was second to none and the staff were very knowledgeable and helpful. The water slide was clean and delivered on time. Their kids' inflatable party rental selection had all the children at our party entertained. Thank you so much Jump Monkey's Party Rental!?"

The locally owned and operated company delivers everywhere in the Houston Metro Area, including Spring, Cypress, Katy, Jersey Village, Aldine, Klein, Bear Creek, Tomball, and Magnolia. If the customer rents a generator and pays for insurance coverage, the company can also set up its inflatables in local public parks including Hermann Park, Levy Park, Buffalo Bayou Park, Donovan Park, Arthur Storey Park, and many more.
