PrimeMarketingTeam.com has recently released a set of new marketing tools specific for real estate agents. The tools are designed to be easy to use and to have maximum effect on the marketing efforts of a real estate agent. Full details are available through the company's website on <http://www.primemarketingteam.com/>.

Anna Zarvanjski from PrimeMarketingTeam.com says: "Many realtors often think that their market is exceedingly complex and that it is therefore impossible to generate hundreds of leads or to even sell a listing. In reality, however, they are wrong. We have released free tools that are designed to complete automate real estate marketing technology. This enables realtors to use the most profitable and successful strategies on the market to day and make them their own, watching their leads soar."

As can be seen on <http://www.primemarketingteam.com/>, not all realtors qualify for the program, which is why it is recommended that they check the various requirements first. Those who do qualify, however, can have their listings marketed for free. Furthermore, Prime Marketing Team promises at least three leads per property. If this is not achieved, they will actually be paying the realtor.

Unsurprisingly, the new system has been very positively received by professionals in the real estate market. "When I first came across the tools and saw that they offered a 100% lead generation guarantee, my first thoughts were literally 'yeah right'," says Mark P., a real estate agent. "Nevertheless, I decided to check if they were as good as their word. Surprisingly, they were. I never did get my money back, but that is because they delivered on every promise they made. My business has literally skyrocketed."

By visiting <http://www.primemarketingteam.com/>, people can find out whether or not they qualify to use the real estate marketing tools. If they do, they can enjoy a lead magnet website specifically designed for their listings, done-for-you videos on real estate marketing and property sales, and an enhanced call capture and automated lead generation system. Put together, these three elements create a powerful website that is able to generate real estate leads very quickly, making individual listings more visible.
