deliver a quality installation that will last for years.?

To provide an estimate, they will visit the home or property and provide a free inspection. This inspection will be performed with the help of drone technology and will look at 25 elements of the roof and other home exterior parts. The drone-assisted inspection will include: inspection of step counter flashing; eaves and rakes inspection; inspection of siding; inspection of storm damage caused by the wind; inspection of storm damage caused by hail; drip edge inspection; inspection of gutter aprons; chimney inspection; inspection of furnace caps and pipes; inspection of step and counter flashing; roof edging inspection; ventilation inspection; hip and ridge inspection; plumbing stack inspection; nail head inspection; attic inspection; downspouts inspection; gutters inspection; soffits and fascia inspection; foundation drainage inspection; roof ventilation and exhaust system inspection; window inspection; air conditioning unit exterior inspection; and inspection of roof sheathing or decking.

They also provide the Watchdog Maintenance service, which is composed of yearly inspections and year after year comparisons to make a forecast as to how long the roof will last. This will help the homeowner or property owner prepare for the expensive roof replacement project in the future. These maintenance records will also be vital in insurance claims and they can be shared with insurance firms. The information and records will also be of help to realtors when they sell the house. The annual inspections will also detect as early as possible any emerging problems and get them fixed before they turn into serious issues that will be expensive to repair.

Meanwhile, all of the information, photos, and records and related data will be stored by Mighty Dog Roofing in the Customer Vault, which is storage allocated for every customer. This storage will contain reports, photographs, warranties, products used, referrals, all communication made during a roofing project, maintenance records, and more. The Customer Vault provides a fast and convenient way to access any information needed when making an insurance claim, undertaking a roofing project, selling the home, and more.
