

Eye Roc Eyewear Welcomes New Lead Optometrist Dr. Daniel Ethakoti

July 10, 2023

St. Louis, Missouri - July 10, 2023 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

St. Louis, MO ? Eye Roc Eyewear, a leading provider of premium eyewear in St. Louis, has announced the addition of Daniel Ethakoti, O.D., to their team. Dr. Ethakoti brings with him a wealth of knowledge, expertise, and a passion for delivering exceptional eye care services to patients. His commitment to innovation and patient-centric care aligns with Eye Roc Eyewear's mission of providing the highest quality optical solutions to their valued customers.

?I?m thrilled to be a part of the Eye Roc Eyewear team,? Dr. Ethakoti said. ?They?re one of the great American establishments in the world of optical design and among the oldest. I love that although some of the most prominent celebrities come to them to define their style, they make their exceptional eyewear and eye care accessible to everyone ? something I value deeply as an optometrist.?

Dr. Ethakoti completed his Doctor of Optometry degree from the University of Missouri ? St. Louis and has been dedicated to advancing the field of eye care for over a decade. He specializes in comprehensive eye examinations, advanced contact lens fittings, and ocular disease management. He?s also fluent in multiple languages, including English, Telugu, and Hindi.

As Eye Roc Eyewear's newest optometrist, Dr. Ethakoti, will play a pivotal role in enhancing the eye care services offered by the company. He will work closely with the existing team of professionals to ensure that every patient receives personalized and comprehensive eye care that's tailored to their unique needs. Dr. Ethakoti's expertise in the latest advancements in vision technology will further strengthen Eye Roc Eyewear's commitment to staying at the forefront of the optical industry.

"Eye Roc Eyewear is known for staying at the forefront of the latest trends, advancements, and vision solutions," Dr. Ethakoti added. "I look forward to combining my extensive knowledge and experience in optometry with the team's boundary-pushing, fashion-forward eyewear expertise. Together, we'll provide a comprehensive eye care experience that goes beyond vision correction, empowering individuals to express their unique style while prioritizing their ocular health."

Eye Roc Eyewear is renowned for its extensive collection of premium eyewear, which features the latest trends in fashion and cutting-edge designs. The appointment of Dr. Ethakoti as their lead optometrist helps Eye Roc Eyewear expand its reach and solidify its position as a leading provider of exceptional eye care services and fashionable eyewear. The company remains committed to investing in top-tier talent and state-of-the-art technology to ensure the continued satisfaction of its valued customers.

"Eye Roc Eyewear has an amazing history," Dr. Ethakoti continued. "I look forward to providing not just vision care but complete optometric eye care using cutting-edge technology. And, of course, we have the best frame styles in St. Louis. I couldn't be prouder of being a part of such an exceptional team."

Dr. Daniel Ethakoti is now accepting new and returning patients at Eye Roc Eyewear's St. Louis location.
