

Simpsons International Removals Provide Valuable Advice About Moving Overseas

July 25, 2023

Dartford, Kent - July 25, 2023 -
Dartford, UK-based Simpsons International Removals Ltd. is offering British residents some key bits of advice on how to make their overseas transition smooth and stress-free.

Simpsons International Removals has the expertise to facilitate moves worldwide and make the experience as seamless as possible for its clients. The company prides itself on maintaining strict British standards for its removals with free home and video surveys, detailed quotations, and all the help with storage and packing that its clients need.

In a recently uploaded YouTube video, Lauren and Hayley discussed some of the ways in which their clients miss the mark when preparing for an international or long-distance move within the UK. The tips were shared during an interview with Craig Rowe from A Place In The Sun, UK?s leading overseas property media brand.

The first concern Lauren raises is that many clients don?t start planning the crucial details of the move until the very last moment. ?We get a lot of people who say they literally forget that they have to plan their moves,? she says. ?We advise them to start planning at least six months before they're due to leave. It is the last thing people do. They are worried about where their money is going instead of their removals. However, once they talk to us, they realise they must get that done sooner rather than later.?

Further in the interview, Hayley talks about how clients may misjudge or need help determining the capacity they need to reserve. She says, ?People don't realise how much volume their belongings are going to take up. We work on cubic feet and that's what the price of the quote is based on. For example, if they have a three-bedroom apartment, they don't realise how much that can be. We do offer things such as home surveys and video surveys to get more accurate estimates over to the client based on their removal needs.?

John Lee, General Manager of Simpsons International Removals Ltd., talks about why customers should choose the company for their removal needs by saying, ?We offer everything you need to start a new life in greener pastures with confidence. Our door-to-door services ensure pick-up and delivery to your new home. You will be assigned a personal move manager who will be with you throughout the removal to answer all your questions. With Simpsons International, you can leave the hard part up to us while you prepare for the exciting journey that awaits you.?

UK residents have time and time again praised Simpsons International for helping them through a stressful move. One 5-star review says, ?We moved from the UK to Austria for work. The Simpsons packing crew did a really good job. Special thanks to John, my move manager was very helpful and responsive to my questions.?

Readers planning on moving internationally are urged to visit the company?s website to get started with an instant online quote.
