Arrowhead Clinic Chiropractor Riverdale Earns Another Five Star Review

July 18, 2023

Riverdale, Georgia - July 18, 2023 -
Arrowhead Clinic Chiropractor Riverdale, which offers car accident injury treatment in Riverdale, GA, takes pride in announcing a recent five-star review they have earned. Currently, they have an enviable overall rating of 5.0 out of 5 stars on Google. This Riverdale chiropractor clinic has a team of chiropractors who are skilled and experienced in providing non-invasive and drug-free treatment of accident injuries. At present, thousands of patients have already experienced relief from sciatica pain, lower back pain, migraines, and whiplash injuries.

In the above-mentioned five-star review, Jhonta H. said, ?This place is great! The staff is awesome, they greet you by name. The nurses make you feel like a long-time friend with their smiling faces, insider jokes, and checking on you throughout the entire session. The Riverdale facility is very clean. Dr. Calvin is great. He has a special bond with all his patients. I?ve never had a Dr. that actually talks to the patients and really gets to know them. And on top of that, I feel so much better. I give them a 10 out of 10.?

Patients can expect a number of things at Arrowhead Clinic Chiropractor Riverdale that differentiate them from other accident injury chiropractors in the area. These include services provided by car accident treatment experts, elite treatment solutions, state-of-the-art diagnostics, comprehensive rehabilitation, personalized care and attention to detail, and a long-term perspective.

They can provide the services of auto accident experts because Arrowhead Clinic has been the recognized leader in the diagnosis and treatment of care accident injuries. For more than 40 years, their team of medical providers and chiropractors has worked in close partnership to stabilize and treat trauma resulting from motor vehicle collisions. They are able to provide elite treatment solutions because they use scientifically-based equipment and the most advanced treatment techniques, including active release therapy, electro-muscle stimulation, computer-guided spinal decompression, fascial distortion model, and functional movement screening.

While their chiropractors pride themselves on being skilled and knowledgeable in detecting injuries and subluxations via manual palpation and muscle testing, their state-of-the-art diagnostics equipment, such as their 3D X-ray technology, enables their doctors to uncover hidden problems that might prevent the patient from attaining optimal health. They also offer a comprehensive rehabilitation program that takes into account each patient?s entire musculoskeletal system and nervous system.

The Riverdale medical doctors and chiropractors at the Arrowhead Clinic offer treatment for various pain and injury conditions, such as Achilles tendinitis, ankle sprains, carpal tunnel syndrome, frozen shoulder/ adhesive capsulitis, golfer?s/ tennis elbow, hamstring pulls/ strains, hip flexor/ psoas tendinitis, hip pain/ discomfort, iliotibial band syndrome, knee sprains, low back pain, neck pain, patellar tendinitis, plantar fasciitis, rotator cuff strains, sciatica, shin splints, temporomandibular joint (TMJ) disorders, tension headaches/ migraines, and whiplash.

Whiplash is a common injury resulting from a car collision, and the most common treatment for this is spinal manipulation or chiropractic adjustment, where the chiropractor gently manipulates the affected joint and thrusts it briefly in the restricted direction. For those who have experienced a car accident in Riverdale and nearby areas, they offer a free consultation at the Arrowhead Clinic.
