Atlanta, Georgia - July 18, 2023 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C., a law firm located in Athens, GA, advises individuals who have sustained injuries to seek the guidance of a personal injury attorney in Athens. It is crucial because injured individuals are entitled to receive medical treatment and compensation for their injuries. The party at fault and their insurance company have specific obligations toward the injured party regarding the injury.

According to Tim Derrickson, a representative of the law firm, "If you have been injured, it is important to seek the counsel of Ken Nugent. The Law Offices of Ken Nugent can promptly evaluate your case and determine the compensation and care you deserve for your injury. Insurance companies are aware of their obligations toward the injured party, but they often capitalize on the lack of awareness among the general public, allowing them to deny claims."

He continues, "Engaging the services of a professional law firm is the most effective way to avoid falling victim to these tactics employed by insurance companies. An accident attorney, such as those at the Law Offices of Ken Nugent, will safeguard your rights and insist that the insurance company complies with the law."

Insurance companies understand that individuals who have been injured and are in the process of recovery are going through a challenging phase in their lives. Besides the physical pain and suffering caused by their injuries, they also face the stress of accumulating unpaid bills, loss of income due to inability to work, and concerns about their loved ones. Insurance adjusters often exploit this situation by offering low settlements, aiming to minimize expenses for the insurance company.

It is important to note that insurance companies have their own team of lawyers to help them avoid paying substantial amounts to the injured party. Therefore, it is imperative for personal injury victims to have their own legal representation to ensure that they receive what is legally rightful. The personal injury attorney that Athens residents would seek is one who provides peace of mind by taking care of their legal rights, allowing them to focus on their healing and recovery.

The lawyers at Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. are capable of handling various personal injury cases, but they specialize in certain areas where they possess extensive experience. For instance, they typically handle cases related to auto accidents involving cars, motorcycles, and trucks. Car accidents are relatively straightforward as it is usually easy to determine the at-fault vehicle. However, truck and motorcycle accidents can be more challenging. Truck insurance companies are difficult to contend with, and multiple stakeholders are involved. Motorcycle accidents can also present challenges due to different witness descriptions and potential witnesses supporting the respondent's side. The attorneys at the firm have considerable expertise in addressing these complexities.

The personal injury lawyers at the firm also handle slip and fall injuries and medical malpractice cases. These types of cases require a comprehensive understanding of the circumstances and the plaintiff's perspective, demanding the professionalism and experience possessed by the firm's lawyers. Other practice areas at Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. include wrongful death, workers' compensation and workplace injuries, overtime and unpaid wages, insurance bad faith, dangerous products and premises, and nursing home abuse.

Wrongful death refers to a situation where a loved one has died due to the misconduct or negligence of another party. The surviving family members may be eligible to seek compensation from the at-fault party, and the lawyers at the firm are equipped to assist in such cases.

When individuals in Athens require the services of a personal injury law firm, they may visit the website of Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. or contact them via telephone or email. The firm is available for contact 24 hours a day, from Monday to Sunday.
