July 19, 2023 -
Home Instead New Forest, an esteemed and award-winning home care provider, reaffirms its commitment to exceptional Dementia Care by announcing that its Care Professionals are now certified through the City & Guilds accredited Dementia Care Training, solidifying its position as a leading Dementia Care provider in the region.

Home Instead New Forest serves the communities of Barton on Sea, New Milton, Milford on Sea, Lymington, Brockenhurst, Lyndhurst, Beaulieu, Totton, and the surrounding areas within the New Forest. With a strong dedication to offering the finest in-home services, the company has built a reputation for excellence in delivering a wide range of care options, including companionship, home help, personal care, and specialist care tailored to meet the unique needs of each individual.

Recognised for its unwavering commitment to quality, Home Instead New Forest has been bestowed with the prestigious "Good" rating by the Care Quality Commission (CQC), underscoring its adherence to the highest standards of care provision. Additionally, the company boasts an exceptional rating of 9.4 on homecare.co.uk, a testament to the positive feedback received from satisfied clients and their families.

"We take immense pride in the exceptional care delivered by our dedicated team of professionals, enabling our clients to continue living comfortably in the familiar surroundings of their own homes," said Tim Oswald, CEO and Owner of Home Instead New Forest. "Our mission is to provide unparalleled Dementia and Alzheimer's care, ensuring the well-being and happiness of those entrusted to our services."

As a forward-thinking organisation, Home Instead New Forest recognises the importance of continuous professional development, particularly in the area of Dementia Care. The company's commitment to training and equipping its Care Professionals with the necessary skills and knowledge reflects its dedication to the welfare of its clients, especially those facing Dementia-related challenges.

The prevalence of dementia and Alzheimer's disease is a growing concern in our society, impacting the lives of millions of individuals and their families worldwide. Home Instead New Forest acknowledges the significance of specialised care for individuals living with these conditions. Through its City & Guilds accredited Dementia Care Training, the company equips its Care Professionals with essential expertise, empowering them to provide compassionate and effective care that promotes independence, dignity, and comfort for their clients.

The emphasis on Dementia Care is not only a testament to Home Instead New Forest's dedication to quality care but also highlights the company's alignment with the evolving needs of the ageing population. The training equips Care Professionals with a deep understanding of the challenges associated with Dementia and Alzheimer's, including effective communication strategies, memory-enhancing activities, and ways to create supportive environments for those living with the condition.

Home Instead New Forest's commitment to exceptional care has garnered widespread recognition and numerous accolades, making it the provider of choice for families seeking compassionate support for their loved ones. The company's holistic approach to care goes beyond meeting physical needs; it extends to fostering emotional well-being through meaningful interactions and promoting a sense of purpose and belonging.

The company's unwavering dedication to its clients and their families has earned Home Instead New Forest a reputation as a trusted partner in navigating the complexities of care. By offering an array of services tailored to individual preferences and requirements, the company ensures that clients receive personalised care that truly enhances their quality of life.

Home Instead New Forest is more than just a care provider; it is a beacon of hope and comfort for the communities it serves. The company's team of compassionate and skilled professionals work tirelessly to make a positive difference in the lives of those they serve, supporting them in their desire to remain in the familiar and cherished surroundings of home.

As the demand for specialised Dementia Care continues to grow, Home Instead New Forest remains steadfast in its commitment to maintaining the highest standards of service excellence. By investing in the professional development of its Care Professionals, the company seeks to set new benchmarks in the field of home care, providing families with peace of mind and ensuring that their loved ones receive the care they deserve.
