COLORADO SPRINGS, CO ? For stylish and high quality window coverings in Colorado Springs, look no further than Window Covering Gallery. The company recently announced new 5-star reviews on Google, solidifying their reputation as the go-to window covering company in ?The Springs.? Since 1985, Window Covering Gallery has served the El Paso County area as the region?s premier window covering company. Nicole Hammond, Interior Designer and Owner of Window Covering Gallery, spoke excitedly about the company?s 5-star reputation.

?We appreciate every positive review for Window Covering Gallery,? said Hammond. ?For nearly 40 years, our family company has been a trendsetter in window covering designs. There?s nothing better than knowing our clients acknowledge our craftsmanship, dedication and expertise. Passion fuels everything we do at Window Covering Gallery.?

Window Covering Gallery offers the following products: blinds, shades, cornices, draperies, and valances. Their shades collection is quite robust, extending from cellular shades, to vertical shades, skylight shades, and beyond. Their selection of window coverings can satisfy most homeowners? tastes, and with the help of their expert design team, choosing the right window covering is easy. Window Covering Gallery also offers customized window covering designs for homeowners who want a personalized touch. Just give them a call to discuss design options.

When it comes to the quality of materials used in window coverings, Window Covering Gallery is partnered with some of the most trusted brands in the business: Comfortext Window Fashions, Horizons Window Fashions, Lafayette Interior Fashions, and Norman Window Fashions. These companies have strong reputations for high quality and craftsmanship. For Window Covering Gallery, it?s important to work with brands that hold the same level of quality and expertise as they do in design and installation.

The company recently celebrated new 5 star reviews on Google. Window Covering Gallery has a stellar 5.0 star rating on Google, something difficult to achieve in today?s scrutinizing world. Their customers have lauded the company for their incredible designs, friendly customer service, and professional installation. Reviews say positive remarks, such as, ?very pleased with how we were treated and prices,? and, ?they did a GREAT JOB,? and ?this company is top notch.?

Window Covering Gallery?s 5 star reputation isn?t only on Google, but also on Facebook, Yelp, and HomeAdvisor. With top ratings on all major review platforms, it?s clear to see that Window Covering Gallery?s reputation isn?t a fluke, but an exemplary example of great work.

In Colorado Springs, window coverings aren?t just for aesthetics. Window coverings can be crucial for protecting against UV exposure, being more energy efficient, sound insulation, and regulating the temperature of a home. In the Colorado Springs climate, which experiences a range of weather, window coverings play an important role in making in-home living more comfortable. With the right window coverings, homeowners can potentially save money on their energy bill every summer, by keeping the home a comfortable temperature without cranking up the a/c all day long. Window coverings also act as a form of privacy, to keep nosey neighbors at bay. And when it comes to thefts and break ins, window coverings can potentially keep intruders out. For these reasons, it?s important that all homeowners take the time to install proper window coverings for their home. Window Covering Gallery can help them do just that.

Window Covering Gallery window blinds are some of the best in the business, according to Hammond. Their selection of blinds include Aria faux wood blinds, Newport Basswood Wood blinds, and Faux Wood Blinds. From these options, clients can work with the Window Covering Gallery team to choose a style and design type that meets their aesthetic and functional needs.

Finding a window covering company that has more experience and knowledge than Window Covering Gallery in Colorado Springs is hard to come by. The company has spent nearly 40 years perfecting their designs, inventory, and expertise in all things window coverings. For a company that holds high standards and provides great craftsmanship as well as excellent customer service, Window Covering Gallery is one of Colorado Springs? most trusted brands.
