

Perry's Florist: Bergen County's Premier Florist, Recognized with Multiple Awards

August 14, 2023

August 14, 2023 -
Glen Rock, NJ - Perry's Florist, a trusted full-service florist and garden center, proudly announces their consecutive recognition as the "Best Florist" in Bergen County. The esteemed title was bestowed upon them by the 201 Magazine Readers in the annual "Best of Bergen" voting. Perry's Florist has received this prestigious honor from 2007 to 2011, 2012, 2013, and 2015. In 2014, they secured a runner-up position, and their excellence was further acknowledged by New Jersey Magazine, naming them the "Best Florist North" in the same year.

Since its establishment in 1954, Perry's Florist has been an integral part of the community for over half a century. Now in its fourth generation of the Perry family, this florist and garden center continues to provide exceptional floral services, upholding the highest standards of quality and personalized care.

Perry's Florist boasts an extensive range of offerings, including a diverse inventory of fresh flowers, tropicals, blooming and green plants cultivated in their own greenhouses, European/dish gardens, contemporary and traditional arrangements, high-style floral designs, silk and dried floral arrangements, wedding consultations, funeral designs, gourmet and fruit baskets, greeting cards, candles, and an extensive gift line. Complementing their floral expertise, they also provide a wide selection of garden plants and supplies from their Garden Center, ensuring that customers have access to a comprehensive range of options for all occasions.

What sets Perry's Florist apart is their unwavering commitment to customer satisfaction. They stand behind their service with a 100% satisfaction guarantee. In the rare event that a customer is not pleased with their order, they can contact the florist within 24 hours of receiving it, and the dedicated team will promptly replace it. This dedication to excellence has not only earned them a loyal customer base but also garnered numerous accolades throughout the years.

Perry's Florist takes pride in offering efficient same-day flower delivery services using their own fleet. Orders placed before 12 noon are ensured timely deliveries throughout most of Bergen and Passaic Counties. For customers in need of time-sensitive, express, or late deliveries, reaching out to the store directly is recommended for personalized assistance. This level of responsiveness and attention to detail guarantees that customers' floral needs are met with the utmost care and professionalism.

Situated on over 4 acres of land with 9 greenhouses producing plants and cut flowers, Perry's Florist welcomes customers for private consultations by appointment. They understand the importance of providing personalized service for special events such as weddings, bar/bat mitzvahs, parties, and corporate events. With their experienced team of professionals, they offer tailored floral designs that complement and elevate each occasion, creating truly memorable experiences for clients and their guests. Corporate and business accounts are warmly welcomed, and Perry's Florist is well-equipped to cater to their specific requirements.
