December 21, 2015 -

Caledon, Canada - Meri Cherry has come up with a unique idea for holiday gifts this season. The blogger knows that her children and their friends love arts and crafts so she has decided this season to prepare Do-It Yourself (DIY) art gift baskets. The gift baskets can come in different shapes and sizes and be filled with children?s favorite art supplies. According to the blogger, she has numerous years of teaching art classes, so the items in her art supply list are sure to be good suggestions.

Meri Cherry declared that the DIY art gift baskets would be a hit for the holidays. Children can become enticed by a unique gift that encourages them to explore their creative side. Chalk board markers are just one of the suggested items in the art supplies gift basket. The blogger highlighted a list of ten other items including Snazaroo Face Painting Kit, Neon Sharpies, Watercolor Paint Set, Paper Pads and Washi or Masking Tape.

According to the blogger, the interesting thing about the gift basket is that the person doesn?t have to leave their house to complete it. This is because all the items can be ordered online which makes it easy to stock the basket for the holidays.

Meri Cherry considered the chalk board markers to be their ?new absolute favorite markers.? One reason they value the chalk board markers was because it can be used on picture frames, windows and anything plastic. The markers can make markings on plastic and non-porous surfaces. Meri Cherry suggested placing a plastic picture frame decorated with the markers on the gift basket to make it more enticing.

Meri Cherry remarked that the colors produced from the chalk board markers were ?incredible.? Additionally the blogger mentioned that the chalk board markers had a ?fantastic opaque quality.? The chalk board markers come in eight bright neon colors including white. According to the company Fun Chalk, they can be efficiently utilized because they do not drip, smudge or fade.

Gold Star Selections will be giving $1 from each package sold this Christmas season to a worthy charity, Brunch Club, who help feed the homeless (especially our veterans).
