August 31, 2023 -

The Cup Coffee House, an online blog based in Sugar Land, TX, that provides information on everything about coffee, has recently released a blog post on 14 popular Starbucks TikTok Drinks and has discussed this particular trend. It is difficult to determine the origin of this trend. Perhaps, some Tiktok users simply wanted to present creative ways to customize their Starbucks drink, but Starbucks was quick to capitalize on it. The coffee house used Spark Ads that leverage organic Tiktok posts in advertising, and combined this with some offline activity to make the trend become viral. More about these TikTok drinks can be gleaned from https://www.thecupcoffeehouse.com/starbucks-tiktok-drinks/.

Since the Tiktok community was already abuzz with people coming up with their own bespoke Starbucks drinks, they simply went one step further by introducing two limited edition beverages supposedly inspired by TikTok and included them on the regular menu for two weeks. Using Spark Ads, they promoted two popular Creator videos that focused on the drinks and built hype around them. The two drinks were the Churro Frappuccino® Blended Beverage and the Strawberry Sunset flavored iced tea. Later on, they added more Starbucks TikTok drinks to their menu such as the Pink Drink Starbucks Refreshers® Beverage.

The campaign proved to be very successful, resulting in the addition of 31,500 new followers of the Starbucks? brand profile. The ads produced 11.5 million impressions and more than 220,000 likes. Meanwhile, with so many TikTok influencers sharing their own recipe for a Starbucks secret menu drink, it has become practically impossible to keep track of all those flavors to choose from.

Their recently published blog post can help by ranking the top TikTok-inspired recipes for Starbucks drinks, according to taste and popularity. It also provides insider tips on how to order these delicious drinks when going to Starbucks. They recommend bringing the specific recipe to be followed when ordering at a Starbucks counter. This will make it easier for the barista to make the drink and this will ensure accuracy. It is also important to be aware that some add-ins may not be possible when using the Starbucks apps. Furthermore, some flavors may only be available in certain seasons.

According to the blog post, the top five Starbucks TikTok Drinks are Iced White Chocolate Mocha TikTok Drink with Sweet Cream Cold Foam, TikTok Pink Drink, Sour Patch Kids Refresher, Cookie Dough Frappuccino, and Caramel Sugar Swirl Latte. The top drink is the Iced White Chocolate Mocha TikTok Drink with Sweet Cream Cold Foam, which makes use of sweet cream cold foam, which is perfect for summer as it provides the ideal match for iced coffee. More sweetness is provided with the caramel sauce and the caramel drizzle.

Meanwhile, for those who prefer chocolate-flavored Starbucks drinks, they can go to https://www.thecupcoffeehouse.com/starbucks-chocolate-drinks/. This is a blog post that features the top 20 Starbucks chocolate drinks. Many coffee lovers prefer to add to chocolate to their coffee drink because the sweetness of chocolate and its unique flavor tends to balance the bitterness of coffee. The three main types of chocolate-flavored drinks are the mochas, hot chocolates, and frappuccinos. However, there are other ways to add chocolate to coffee since there are various forms of chocolate that Starbucks can add, such as: chocolate malt powder, ground chocolate and cocoa, white chocolate mocha sauce, white chocolate sauce, mocha sauce, milk mocha sauce, mocha drizzle, frappuccino chips, and chocolate cookie crumble.

They used a number of factors to rank the Starbucks chocolate drinks. These are the taste and flavor profile, how customizable it is, popularity and customer reviews, and nutritional content. They also included some drinks that contain less calories. Those who want less calories can also opt for non-dairy or low-fat milk and not including the whipped cream.
