August 18, 2023 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

[Ramsey, MN]: Mid America Fence Supply is excited to announce their expansion into five new states. Expanding outside of Minnesota into Iowa, Nebraska, North Dakota, South Dakota and Wisconsin but offering delivered fence material throughout the Midwest. As a family-owned company, Mid America can't wait to finally spread outside their local community to bring abundant materials at lower costs to more contractors. They hope to continue to prove why their customers continue to be satisfied with top-quality materials and friendly customer service.

The mission of Mid America is very simple: provide contractors with quality materials, low prices, and innovative installation methods to elevate businesses and projects to the next level. As Mid America broadens their service borders, they bring with them their mission and support for advancing companies and contractors of humble beginnings. They can't wait to bring those from Minnesota into Iowa, Nebraska, North Dakota, South Dakota and Wisconsin into the Mid America family.

Mid America is easily comparable with corporate sellers and larger contractors. With over 20 years of working in the fence industry, they have the knowledge and experience to know top-quality products. Plus, with their industry network, Mid America employees know how to find these amazing products at the lowest costs. These discounts can then be transferred to their customers to be comparable to big box stores.

Buying material in bulk means that Mid America has supplies ready on hand when contractors need it. There is no backorder or wait time for the network of suppliers to transfer the necessary inventory. Whether contractors are looking for vinyl, steel, or other fencing options, Mid America has what they need when they need it.

With thousands of posts and sections in stock, Mid America is ready and able to deliver materials to contractors in these five new cities. Their online inventory makes it easy to browse all their products and select the ones needed for an upcoming project.

Since their inception, Mid America has showcased reliability and excellence within the fencing industry. They work with their customers to find the right products and create an adequate financing plan so there are no barriers to their services. Rooted in family values, it's not surprising to read the hundreds of positive reviews from contractors around the upper Midwest.

This expansion is a natural step for Mid America, and the decision to venture into these five thriving cities was driven by the demand for cost-effective and reliable materials in these areas. They are aiming to use this expansion strategically to bolster the fence construction industry in each new location. Contractors in Minnesota into Iowa, Nebraska, North Dakota, South Dakota and Wisconsin, will now be able to benefit from Mid America's unparalleled extensive inventory.

Mid America is excited to bring their passion for quality products and customer service to new markets. They are ready to forge strong relationships with local businesses, contractors, and DIY homeowners in these new communities.
