WhiteSands is a part of the community in all the cities it operates in, and its strong ties to Florida?s cities and people mean it?s well-versed in the unique needs, challenges, and opportunities that patients face here.

WhiteSands, begins to help patients address the underlying issues from the very first day a patient start their journey with them. Within the first week of treatment, each patient meets with the medical director, clinical director, psychiatrist, and individual therapist multiple times. As a team, each patient?s needs are carefully reviewed to determine what the best course of treatment will be.This includes working with each patient to help them establish goals for individual therapy, selecting therapy group options, and their individualized need for medical treatment. Each patient will have 4-5 individual and/or family therapy sessions per week. This requires WhiteSands to have a larger number of qualified clinical staff as part of its treatment team.

At WhiteSands, they believe in true individualized treatment and implement this in a variety of areas. They do not believe in moving patients like cattle from one group to another where everyone is following the same treatment program regardless of background or circumstances. From the conception of WhiteSands to the present, they have been on a mission to develop the most comprehensive and individualized treatment
