August 23, 2023 -
Woodbury, MN - Art & Science Family Dentistry, a long-standing pillar of dental care in Woodbury, Minnesota, is thrilled to announce the launch of its brand-new website, coinciding with the celebration of its golden anniversary. For five decades, Art & Science Family Dentistry has proudly served their community and neighbors with compassionate, patient-focused dental care, and the new online platform further solidifies their commitment to serving the community with excellence.

Established in 1973, Art & Science Family Dentistry has provided comprehensive services that combine artistry and science to enhance smiles and lives. Driven by a passion for innovation and patient well-being, the clinic has evolved over the years to integrate cutting-edge dental techniques while maintaining its core values of compassion and personalized care.

The new website, artsciencedentistry.com, reflects the clinic's dedication to embracing modern technology while fostering a warm and inviting atmosphere. Visitors to the site will be greeted with friendly team smiles and a sleek, user-friendly design that mirrors the clinic's contemporary approach to dentistry. The website's intuitive navigation allows patients to easily explore the range of services offered, from preventive and cosmetic treatments to restorative procedures.

"We are thrilled to mark our 50th anniversary by launching our new website," said Dr. Renee Kinney, the owner and second-generation Kinney at Art & Science Family Dentistry. "This platform will not only serve as a window into our practice but also as a valuable resource for patients seeking information about their oral health. We believe in empowering our patients to make informed decisions, and this website aligns perfectly with that mission."

The website features a wealth of educational content to help answer questions and to introduce their values and care, including videos and blog posts. From tips on maintaining optimal oral hygiene to insights into the latest advancements in dental technology, the website aims to be a hub of reliable information for patients of all ages.

In addition to its educational offerings, the website allows patients to conveniently request appointments, access patient forms, and learn more about the clinic's staff and commitment.

As Art & Science Family Dentistry brings forth its new website, it remains steadfast in its dedication to personalized care. The clinic's warm and welcoming atmosphere extends beyond the physical walls to the virtual realm, where patients can experience the same level of compassion and attention that has been the hallmark of the practice for half a century.

Erin a happy patient, shared this five-star review on Google, ?Great dental office all around! Dr. Renee, along with the hygienists and assistants, are personable, knowledgeable, and trustworthy; they take the time to explain things and answer any questions. Their safety practices make me feel safe and comfortable. The office building is conveniently located, the waiting area is spacious and clean, the front office staff is always super nice, welcoming, and helpful with scheduling, transferring records, and billing.?

The launch of the new website comes as a testament to Art & Science Family Dentistry's unwavering commitment to its community. It's an invitation for patients to be part of an enduring legacy of care, where the artistry of dentistry meets the precision of science. For 50 years, the clinic has been a trusted partner in oral health, and now, with its new digital presence, it looks forward to serving the Woodbury, Minnesota community and surrounding area for generations to come.
