

Armstrong & Surin Celebrate 36 Years Of Real Estate Law Service

December 17, 2015

December 17, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

The legal team at Armstrong & Surin Law Office will be celebrating 36 years of real estate law service in 2016.

Since 1980, the firm has offered real estate services for clients in the Ottawa, Illinois, area. These services include landlord and tenant law, commercial and residential real estate, encroachments and easements, HOA law, and more.

According to Armstrong & Surin, real estate buyers and sellers generally have more success with a real estate attorney on their side because they are able to get the most out of their transaction. The Armstrong & Surin Law Office team ensures that clients understand all documents before signing and that no misinterpretations occur.

The firm also offers area-leading divorce, criminal, bankruptcy, and personal injury litigation services. More information can be found at <http://www.armstrongsurin.com/>.
