September 13, 2023 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

JumpOrange, a leading name in the inflatable entertainment industry, is proud to announce its versatile range of inflatables for sale tailored to cater to a diverse clientele. Recognizing the diverse needs of commercial clients, from party organizers to corporate event planners, the company's latest offerings promise unmatched quality, design, and safety.

The company caters to a broad range of clients, most notably party rental businesses of all sizes across the U.S. "We're proud to offer an inventory that any and every party rental business can invest in," JumpOrange spokesperson said. "Whether you're just getting started and investing in a few choice inflatables or are expanding your collections to include large obstacle courses, exciting slides, and more, we've got you covered."

One of the company's standout products is the Thunder Dual Lane Combo. Priced at $3,375.00 (or $2,868.75 for members), this product is an electrifying amalgamation of fun and thrill. It ingeniously blends multiple features - a dual lane slide, bounce house, climb wall, basketball hoop, tunnel, and obstacles - ensuring it becomes the focal point of any event. Part of the advanced XL Series from JumpOrange, the Thunder Dual Lane Combo is constructed with premium 15 oz PVC vinyl and comes equipped with non-slippery stairs, heat-sealed seams, and added vinyl at stress points. These combos are meticulously designed for year-round usage, assuring excellent ROI for clients. For those interested in themed collections, this inflatable is a gem from the Thunder Collection and pairs well with the Thunder 15 slide and the Thunder 19 slide.

For clients seeking a splash of excitement, JumpOrange presents the Stingray Attack 19 slide. Retailing at $4,495.00 (members enjoy a discounted price of $3,820.75), this slide is the epitome of aquatic thrills. Standing tall at 12 feet and stretching to 36 feet in length, it promises to leave both children and adults exhilarated. Key features such as shade, non-slippery climbing material, child-safe netting, and heat-sealed seams attest to the company's commitment to safety and quality. As with all their top-tier products, the Stingray Attack 19 slide is crafted from 100% industrial-grade PVC 15 oz vinyl, guaranteeing durability through endless sessions of jumping, sliding, and bouncing. Clients who invest in this slide will also enjoy a one-and-a-half-year limited warranty.

Taking inspiration from the vibrant world of video gaming, JumpOrange is excited to introduce the Level Up 15 slide. Available for $3,495.00 (or $2,970.75 for members), this slide is a visual delight with its neon-colored, game-themed design. As part of the innovative XLD Series, the Level Up 15 slide incorporates the much-sought-after detachable pool feature, elevating the fun quotient. Its limited edition vinyl colors further underscore the uniqueness of the product. Prioritizing safety, the slide is equipped with netting to prevent mishaps and completely sealed seams to minimize water leakage. For those looking to expand their collection, this slide is a prime member of the Level Up Collection, which also boasts a 19 ft slide.

"With the varied needs of our commercial clients in mind, we've curated a range of inflatables that not only promise fun but also ensure safety and durability. Our latest 'inflatables for sale' lineup is a testament to our dedication to delivering unparalleled experiences," commented a spokesperson from JumpOrange.

In a market flooded with generic inflatables, JumpOrange's commitment to quality, innovation, and client satisfaction sets them apart. Their comprehensive range of "inflatables for sale" is a testament to their unwavering dedication to elevating the industry standard. The company maintains a positive rating on its official Google Business Profile, and customers often remark on JumpOrange's expansive inventory, friendly customer support team, and convenient process.

Happy customer Mariah A. said, "This company has the most unique and durable inflatables! Along with the best customer service from Julio and Alan (the only two people I have dealt with so far). They are by far the best at making sure the customers are happy with the product they are receiving. You cannot go wrong with this company! These inflatables make our business successful. Thank you JumpOrange, for everything!?"

For more details on JumpOrange's offerings or to explore the company's extensive commercial product range of inflatables for sale, potential clients are encouraged to browse the company's website or follow its official social media pages, including Facebook, Instagram, YouTube, and TikTok.
