

Minneapolis Criminal Defense Lawyers Firm Helps Get Criminal Sexual Conduct Charges Against Doctor Dropped

September 26, 2023

Minneapolis, Minnesota - September 26, 2023 -

Ryan Garry, Criminal Attorney, with law firm based in Minneapolis, MN, takes pride in announcing their success in convincing the prosecutor to drop the criminal sexual conduct charges made against their client, who is a well-known doctor. Two women told the police they were raped by the doctor on two separate nights. Ryan and his team did an extensive private investigation, including the background of the women. The investigation lasted for more than one year and revealed serious doubt as to the truthfulness of the accusations made by the two women, which helped Ryan Garry convince the prosecutor to drop both charges.

With the intense prosecution of sexual related crimes in Minnesota and in the US District Court, and cases carrying mandatory prison sentences and other penalties, it is vital to get the assistance of an experienced Minneapolis sex crimes lawyer, such as Ryan Garry. Furthermore, the government has several prosecutors for each case file, plus several victim advocates and other court staff lobbying to convince the judge to apply the harshest penalties. For those who are charged with any felony level criminal sexual conduct offense, and are convicted of any crime that is not even related to the original offense, the law mandates that the person register as a criminal sexual and predatory offender. Thus, it is vital to hire a criminal sexual conduct attorney, such as Ryan Garry LLC, MN Criminal Lawyers, as quickly as possible.

First degree criminal sexual conduct involves sexual penetration or certain sexual contact with the victim under 13 years old. It carries a maximum penalty of 30 years in prison and/or up to a $40,000 fine. Second degree criminal sexual conduct involves sexual contact and carries a maximum penalty of 25 years in prison and/or up to a $35,000 fine. Third degree criminal sexual conduct involves sexual penetration, and the offender knows the other person is physically helpless or mentally impaired, the offender was a masseuse to the other, or the two have psychotherapist-patient relationship. It carries a maximum penalty of 15 years in prison and/or up to $30,000 fine.

Fourth degree sexual conduct is sexual contact with another person similar to some other circumstance like those in third degree sexual conduct. It carries a maximum of 10 years in prison and/or up to $20,000 fine. Fifth degree criminal sexual conduct is non-consensual sexual contact or certain acts of displaying the genitals to an individual under 16 years old. It carries a maximum penalty of one year in prison and/or up to a $3,000 fine. However, the offense may become a felony if a second offense of exhibition of genitals to a person under 16 years old or the same offense in a different state.

Meanwhile, everything that is related to child pornography is illegal. Possessing or disseminating it if one is aware or should know what it is, are felonies. Dissemination of child pornography carries a penalty of up to 7 years in prison and/or up to a $10,00 fine. Possession of child pornography carries a penalty of up to 5 years in prison and/or up to $5,000 fine.
