Atlanta, Georgia - September 25, 2023 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Situated in Mableton, Georgia, Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. strongly advises individuals who have sustained injuries to seek guidance from a personal injury lawyer in the Mableton area. This is of utmost importance, as those who have been injured have legal rights to medical treatment and financial compensation. Both the liable party and their insurance company bear specific legal responsibilities towards the injured party.

Tim Derrickson, a spokesperson for the law firm, emphasizes, "If you've suffered an injury, it is imperative to seek counsel from Ken Nugent's law office. Our team can promptly assess your case to ascertain the rightful compensation and care you are entitled to. Insurance companies often exploit public unawareness of these rights to deny legitimate claims."

Mableton Personal Injury Legal Counsel

Derrickson further adds, "Engaging the services of a qualified law firm like ours is the most effective countermeasure against the often manipulative tactics employed by insurance companies. An experienced accident attorney from our firm will ensure that your rights are safeguarded and that insurance companies fulfill their legal obligations."

Insurance providers are aware that injured individuals, while on the path to recovery, face a challenging phase in their lives. In addition to dealing with physical discomfort, they must contend with mounting medical expenses, lost wages due to their inability to work, and concerns for their families. Insurance adjusters frequently exploit this vulnerability by offering minimal settlements, thereby reducing costs for the insurance company.

It is crucial to note that insurance companies have their own legal teams dedicated to minimizing payouts. Therefore, it is essential for injured individuals to have their legal representation to secure what is legally owed to them. Mableton residents seeking a personal injury lawyer should choose one who enables them to focus on their recovery while safeguarding their legal rights.

Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. boasts lawyers proficient in various types of personal injury cases, specializing in specific areas where they possess extensive expertise. For instance, they routinely handle auto accidents, including those involving cars, trucks, and motorcycles. While car accidents are generally straightforward, truck and motorcycle accidents often present unique challenges. Negotiating with truck insurance providers can be challenging, and motorcycle accidents can be complicated due to varying eyewitness accounts. The firm's attorneys excel in handling these complex cases.

Additionally, the firm represents clients in slip and fall accidents and medical malpractice suits. These cases demand a comprehensive understanding of both the circumstances and the plaintiff's perspective, a level of professionalism that Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. readily provides. Other areas of practice at the firm encompass wrongful death, workers' compensation, unpaid wages and overtime, insurance bad faith, hazardous products and premises, and elder abuse in nursing homes.

Wrongful death cases involve situations where a family member has lost their life due to someone else's negligence. Surviving relatives may be eligible for compensation, and the firm's attorneys are well-prepared to assist in such instances.

Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. has garnered an outstanding reputation not only within the state but also nationwide, as evidenced by their exceptional Google reviews. One reviewer, Barbara Waters, praised Eric Sterling from the firm, saying, "Eric was an incredible source of support throughout my entire ordeal. His approachability, attentiveness, focus on my needs, and unwavering dedication were absolutely priceless. Even throughout the lengthy legal battle, he remained committed to advocating for my rights and consistently lifted my spirits. He's a true asset to the firm!"

For Mableton residents in need of a capable personal injury lawyer, Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. is accessible 24/7, seven days a week, via their website, phone, or email.
