Central Phoenix Real Estate Brokerage Firm AXIS Real Estate Invites Property Buyers, Sellers, And Tenants To Browse Its Listings

October 16, 2023

PHOENIX, AZ - October 16, 2023 -
Metro Phoenix real estate broker AXIS Real Estate is helping clients rent, buy, sell, and manage properties in the Valley of the Sun.

The premier full-service real estate brokerage has been serving all of the Metro Phoenix area for over a decade, providing invaluable services benefiting homebuyers, homeowners, and investors. The company extends its services to properties in, but not limited to, Scottsdale, Tempe, Chandler, Gilbert, Mesa, Glendale, Goodyear, and Peoria. Along with helping customers rent, buy, and sell properties, AXIS Real Estate also specializes in residential and commercial property management and real estate investments.

?Be careful working with the many licensed real estate agents out there in Phoenix,? says Jason Sellers, the founder of AXIS Real Estate. ?With other agents, you get a limited perspective that can prove damaging to your bottom line in the long run. At AXIS Real Estate, we have fostered a team that has experience in hospitality management, architecture, and management consulting, allowing us to uniquely solve your real estate problems with fresh ideas and inventive strategies. We also have a strong foundation in the Metro

Phoenix real estate market through our partnerships with local painters, plumbers, staging specialists, mortgage lenders, and a variety of other helpful real estate service providers. Call us today to experience the difference of working with true professionals.?

A full portfolio of the company?s featured properties is available to be browsed through on its website. Clients can zoom in on a map of the Phoenix metro area to find properties and then filter the listings by additional criteria such as beds, baths, lot size, days listed, year built, price range, property type, schools/districts, property status, and other features. Users can also sign up to get regular updates, save their favorite listings, request information about their selections, or schedule a showing.

Jason summarizes the philosophy that has brought AXIS Real Estate great success so far by saying, ?Doing something with a team of the right people will make things happen faster and is more rewarding. I started the company in 2008 to build a trustworthy, dedicated team with intimate knowledge of the Metro Phoenix area ? a team that is devoted to high-quality service. You can rely on AXIS Real Estate?s commitment and focus on delivering the best outcomes to exceed your expectations in the real estate market.?

Currently, AXIS Real Estate lists over 9000 residential properties for sale, over 170 multi-family units for sale, nearly 5200 active lots for sale, and over 3000 active listings for rent. The company has also received tremendous support from the local community it serves with clients gushing in their testimonials about the helpfulness and responsiveness of its staff, the wide range of properties available for all price ranges, and the help provided during every step of the property buying, selling, renting, and management process.

One client thanks Jason and his company for their services by saying, ?Jason Sellers is INCREDIBLE. Our closing process was extremely outside the realm of, ?normal?. Jason went above and beyond communicating with the seller and us to ensure a smooth closing process. He did not decline a single call and was always available for questions and concerns surrounding this very new process for us. He was able to leverage long-lasting relationships that he?s built over the years to help support us throughout the whole process. THANK YOU again for getting us into our FIRST Home.?

Another customer writes, ?We have been renting with AXIS since 2019 and have had the best experience. Anything that needs fixing has been done, they immediately get someone out to our property and have been responsive and helpful throughout our time renting. Now that we are ready to buy a house, Jason and Denice are able to help and we are thankful!! Best management and real estate company I?ve dealt with! THANK YOU ? highly recommend.?
