One customer says, ?I found Elite Jewelers in a huge Gem show while I was looking for an engagement ring. They took the time, listened to what I was looking for, and helped me find the perfect ring. They sized and prepped the ring for me in a matter of days to have it in time for the engagement. A few months later, my fiancé and I knew we had to go to Elite Jewelers to help us with our wedding bands. They delivered once again, matching us with what we imagined at a superb price, significantly beating what we would have paid at any chain jewelry store. I definitely recommend giving them a try.?

Another Scottsdale resident writes, ?I came in for a necklace repair. I saw their beautiful selections of engagement rings with the best prices around in the valley, I then returned months later and came in for an engagement ring Edwin great guy helped me out. Picked the one he helped with the sizing on the ring and was there throughout the process. I will be coming only there for any of my jewelry purchases. Great staff, good people, best prices around. Highly recommend this place.?
