December 15, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Troy Warren, host of LetsTalkBusinessRadio.com, along with his co-host Michael Jurian (Michael J), interviewed special guests Dione Balingit the National Director of LetsTalkBusinessRadio.Com and City Director of the Phoenix Valley Jamie Jacobs.

Balingit revealed her extensive background along with her plans for the roll out of many City Directories within the Chicago area and the Phoenix Valley.

Michael Jurian said, "The City Directories create a win for both the business professionals and the consumers and homeowners seeking their services. Let's Talk Business Radio does the vetting process for the consumer and that is the biggest win so they can do business with confidence."

Jacobs talked about her vast experience with magazine publishing in bringing consumers and businesses together.

Warren the host of LetsTalkBusinessRadio.Com is launching 100+ Home and Health Service directories in three major metropolitans which include San Diego, Phoenix and Chicago.

Warren commented, "The goal here is to interview these professionals so that consumers can benefit from the information and make wiser purchase decisions."

Warren also mentioned that there are so many choices for the homeowner that things can get confusing very quickly. His intent is to close the gap on that confusion and also expose the service providers reputation. And in the case of the new directories Warren only looks for mostly 5 Star service professionals that home owners can rely upon.

The Home and Health Service directories are a free service to the homeowner and consumers providing not only convenience but will make better service professional buying decisions and be confident in getting top notch service.

Warren also said, "Part of the interview process with the Home Service professionals will be about their business and also what they have done to get top ratings in their industry."

The interview can be found on Episode 72.
