Talk with an Irving criminal defense attorney at Chris Lewis & Associates, P.C. to discuss your defense options and work toward preventing a conviction. When fighting criminal charges, there are often many creative solutions. There could be treatment options or a probation alternative to jail time or you could even get a charge dropped or dismissed with help from a lawyer. Don?t let your fear keep you from taking action to protect your future.?

Various kinds of criminal charges can be handled by the Irving defense lawyer at Chris Lewis & Associates. These include: drug crimes; alcohol-related offenses, including DWIs and DUIs; juvenile

Chris Lewis adds, ?Every person who has been charged with a crime has a compelling story to tell. Life is not black and white and neither are criminal charges. No matter the situation that got you into this mess, you likely need a defense attorney to help get you out of it. A lawyer can look at your case to find out the defense options that could work best for you.?
