HauntRave.com provides reviews of haunted houses across the United States to help those who are interested in finding the best haunted attractions in a particular area. Site visitors can search by state and also by category. Haunted attractions are classified as: corn maze, costume shops, escape game rooms, escape room center, ghost hunts, ghost tours, Halloween parties, haunted cemeteries, haunted hotel, haunted houses, haunted mansion, haunted prison, haunted yards, hayrides, and zombie paintball.

The website also provides a blog page that features articles related to haunted attractions. For instance, one blog post presents a mini-guide to New Orleans, Louisiana, and its various attractions, such as the Mardi Gras celebration and its various haunted houses. Haunted houses are a key element of Halloween celebrations and most haunted houses have some kind of legend that is connected to them. Haunted houses are typically dark, musty, and damp, which tend to attract ghosts. If a person had died in that house, it also interesting to know various details about how that person had died.

HauntRave.com also presents the top 10 places in the United States for celebrating Halloween. These are Chattanooga, Chicago, Los Angeles, New Orleans, New York City, Orlando, Salem, San Francisco, Seattle, and St. Louis. Featured in Chattanooga is Dread Hollow, which seems to be a regular small town located in the shadows of highways and byways. Dread Hollow was created by the people who came up with the award-winning Ruby Falls Haunted Cavern, which has been recognized as one of the top 10 haunted houses in the country by Rand McNally.

Haunted attractions in Chicago include the Camp Scare Away Haunted House, Townhouse of Terror, Chicago Haunting Tours, and The Catacombs. Camp Scare Away Haunted House features demonic ghouls, bloodthirsty killers, and grotesque fiends to scare campers. Townhouse of Terror features a townhouse that is turned into a haunted house one weekend per year. The Chicago Haunting Tours features a "ghost bus" and is considered to be the "most authentic and research ghost and dark history tours" in Chicago. The Catacombs is located in a basement of St. Pascal's school. The whole basement is a series of winding corridors and rooms featuring a large mirrored section with hidden sliding doorways, a butcher shop, a zombie containment area, an electrocution room, a fog-enshrouded area, and a boiler room.

Haunted attractions in Los Angeles include the Halloween Horror Nights LA and Los Angeles Haunted Hayride. Halloween Horror Nights LA is one of the most popular scary fall events in Los Angeles. It is a ticketed, after-hours event that provides guests a thrilling and terrifying journey through the worlds of Universal Pictures, Netflix, AMC's The Walking Dead, Blumhouse Productions, and more. The Los Angeles Haunted Hayride features a ride on a haywagon to provide a scary and thrilling adventure featuring the spirits of the underworld summoned by the Witch of the Woods.

The haunted attraction in New Orleans is The Mortuary Haunted House, which is an actively haunted, three-story mansion surrounded by the New Orleans Cities of the Dead. It is a world-class and unique haunted attraction due to the realism of the property, which is located on World Famous Canal Street in a real mortuary, which is surrounded by actual cemeteries.

Haunted attractions in New York City include the Double M Haunted Hayrides, Demon Acres Haunted Hayride, Chamber of Horrors NY, Blood Manor, Nightmare Manor, Kingsbury Cemetery Haunted House, Kevin McCurdy's Haunted Mansion, House of Horrors and Haunted Catacombs, Headless Horseman, Frightworld, Pure Terror Scream Park, The Barn Of Terror, The Haunt at Rocky Ledge, Schmitts Farm Haunted House, and The Trail of Terror.
