Phoenix Accident Injury Chiropractors of Penny chiropractic Injury clinic in Phoenix, AZ, are proud to announce that their two doctors of Chiropractic, Dr. Trever Penny and Dr. John Quackenbush, have now both received full certification from the American Board of Independent Medical Examiners. This is a true testament to their excellent quality of service and commitment to the health and well-being of their patients. Each car accident chiropractor had sought certification to further increase their credentials and they are very proud to have received it.

"Getting certified by the American Board of Independent Medical Examiners is a huge accomplishment," says Dr. Trever Penny, founder of Penny Injury Chiropractic. "It confirms to our patients that we offer an excellent service and that we are incredibly focused on providing up to date treatment for car and motorcyle accident victims. We have already built a solid reputation as being the go to chiropractic office in the Phoenix area, and this certification is really like the icing on the cake. I'm so proud of both myself and my colleague Dr. John Quackenbush." Full details about the certification can be obtained through http://www.abime.org/.

The clinic focuses specifically on victims who have been involved in a car or motorcycle accidents and workplace-related injuries.They have over 48 years of combined experience in dealing with these types of injuries. Their goal is also to make sure that their patients do not find themselves with out of pocket expenses as a result of their accident. In other words, treatment is paid from the insurance of the at fault party that caused the accident.

Patients of the clinic have been very happy about the services they have received. "I actually was involved in two separate car accidents in the last 16 months," says Lana T. "Thank goodness that I attended with Dr. Trever Penny. My attorney said that Dr. Penny documented my case and he was able to get the insurance adjuster to concede that I actually was hurt in a different area of my back. My insurance company didn't want to pay for my treatment because they said all my injuries were from the first accident. Well Dr. Penny and my attorney worked together and got my medical bills paid and and I am ever thankful I was able to receive treatment for my injuries."

Dr. Trever Penny MUAC CICE and Dr John Quackenbush MUAC CICE are both accepting referrals for impairment examinations from medical doctors, chiropractors, attorneys as well as third party insurance adjusters. Call 623-463-1000 to schedule an appointment.
