

Savannah Car Accident Lawyer Helps Victims Secure Adequate Compensation

November 13, 2023

November 13, 2023 -
Savannah, GA residents are being invited to reach out to Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. for professional legal assistance obtaining compensation following an accident on the road. The firm specializes in helping the victims of various types of accidents (and their loved ones) fight for their rights both in and out of court.

Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. frequently works with victims of workplace injuries, medical malpractice and car accidents as well as surviving loved ones. From minor crashes resulting in short hospital visits or outpatient treatment to catastrophic accidents resulting in death, Kenneth S. Nugent P.C. has the knowledge and expertise to help victims and their families uphold their rights in court.

?It is not uncommon for someone to experience an auto accident only to discover that their injuries are much worse than originally thought,? says the Savannah firm. ?What seems like a minor injury can have long term effects and require long term treatment. It is the obligation of the offending party?s insurer to make sure that treatment for these injuries is paid. It is also their obligation to make sure that you receive complete care and compensation for those injuries. Sadly, insurance companies do not always comply with their obligations. Hiring an auto accident attorney in Savannah is the best way to make sure that your interests are protected when you are the victim of an accident. An auto accident attorney in Savannah will represent your case to the insurance company, compelling them to meet their obligations.?

The first step after an accident occurs is to seek treatment. Only once the medical professionals say that there are no pressing issues should finding legal representation become a priority. However, it is not uncommon for insurance companies to begin offering to settle a case before the victim has left the hospital. This is why, while it would be better to pursue legal recourse after a full recovery, it is usually best to get in contact with a personal injury lawyer as quickly as possible.

A personal injury lawyer will know exactly how to keep insurance companies at bay while collecting all the necessary information to ensure that they are able to present a solid claim in the event the matter goes to court. Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. strives to make sure that each and every accident victim gets an adequate payout to continue healing from their ordeal both physically and mentally.

What sets Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. apart from other personal injury firms is the fact that they strive to treat each and every client as if they were family. They work exclusively on the side of victims against insurance companies and commit a large number of resources to each and every case. The law office?s legal team is also made up of graduates from some of the best colleges and universities in the country. No matter how complex a client?s situation may be, they will find a lawyer at Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. who is able to understand their needs and offer some of the best service of any personal injury lawyer in the industry.

The firm was first founded in 1980 in Atlanta and has since grown into a region-spanning organization that helps hundreds uphold their rights in court. Over the years, Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C.?s Savannah office has amassed hundreds of glowing reviews, many of which can be found online.

?Jim Kasprzysky, Ally Page, and Lauren Huffman were a dedicated, well communicated and experienced team,? says a review from T. Agile. ?Most of the time I spent in communication with my legal team was actually spent with my attorney, Jim. He listened to my concerns and answered my many questions in a supportive manner. I made sure to do my part diligently but ultimately it was this team's experience that ensured I got a much better-than-expected settlement. It's good to be taken seriously and feel like a capable team has my back. Thank you, Jim and team.?
