Method Man Partners with Apothecarry: Introducing TICAL's High-End Marijuana Lock Boxes and Designer Streetwear

November 16, 2023

STATEN ISLAND, NY - November 16, 2023 -

STATEN ISLAND, NEW YORK - Hip Hop legend and entrepreneur, Clifford Smith, Jr., famously known as Method Man, has taken a giant leap into the world of Hip Hop marijuana fashion and designer streetwear. Partnering with Los Angeles-based Apothecarry, a brand renowned for its high-quality stash boxes, Method Man announces the launch of TICAL - a line of premium marijuana lock boxes and an accompanying range of designer streetwear and high quality sunglasses.

The TICAL brand, founded by Method Man and co-founded by Joshua "Raz" Rassin, is set to redefine the landscape of cannabis accessories and urban fashion. Bringing a unique blend of Hip Hop culture and marijuana fashion, TICAL's offerings are much more than just products; they're a statement. Delving deeper into the essence of the streets and the allure of the Hip Hop lifestyle, TICAL embraces both worlds, crafting pieces that are not only functional but also deeply emblematic of an era and ethos. Every accessory, every piece of apparel, is designed with an unwavering commitment to authenticity, ensuring that the spirit of the culture is interwoven into the very fabric of the brand. From the meticulous design process to the materials chosen, TICAL is the epitome of luxury meeting street - an ode to those who live and breathe the rhythm of the streets and Hip Hop culture.

"Music and marijuana have always been a significant part of my life. With TICAL, we're bringing those worlds together, offering high-end stash boxes and streetwear that resonate with the culture," said Clifford Smith, Jr.

These aren't just any stash boxes. Crafted with precision and designed for the urban elite, TICAL's marijuana lock boxes offer a combination of functionality and luxury. Each box comes with an autographed certificate by Method Man, adding a personal touch for fans and collectors alike. Ensuring that users can store their marijuana securely, these boxes also serve as a stylish accessory, reflecting the brand's ethos of merging practicality with high fashion. Going beyond mere storage, TICAL's stash boxes exude an aura of sophistication and are destined to be conversation starters. Inside, users will find a removable rolling tray, aptly named the "Rolling Tray," and a high-quality zinc alloy kitchen grinder complete with a catcher. The 4 TICAL Custom Glass Jars are perfect for storing different strains, and the elastic straps keep pre-filled oil canisters upright, ensuring no spillage. Made with high-quality materials, these cannabis lock boxes are strong, durable, and odor-resistant, encapsulating the essence of modern urban luxury. For the discerning individual who values both aesthetics and function, TICAL?s lock boxes are more than a product - they're an experience, an embodiment of the elevated art of marijuana storage, and a testament to the brand's dedication to excellence in every aspect. Whether displayed prominently in one's living space or carried on the go, these stash boxes make a statement about the owner's refined taste and alignment with the pulsating energy of contemporary Hip Hop culture.

In collaboration with Apothecarry, known not only for their quality but also as a purveyor of luxury cannabis lock boxes, TICAL ensures that their stash boxes live up to the high standards set by both brands. The Apothecarry Brands, Inc., with its reputation for providing high style and high-quality goods, is specifically tailored for the cannabis connoisseur. Their expertise in crafting luxurious cannabis accessories aligns perfectly with TICAL's vision. A meeting of minds between the two giants has resulted in a product line that is set to become a must-have for marijuana aficionados. This partnership marries the best of Hip Hop culture with the epitome of luxury cannabis storage, ensuring that customers are receiving a product that is both functional and a true reflection of the sophisticated cannabis lifestyle.

But TICAL's offerings don't end there. With the launch of Method Man sunglasses and an array of designer streetwear, the brand is set to make waves in the world of urban fashion. Drawing inspiration from Method Man's iconic style and the dynamic world of Hip Hop, these pieces promise to bring a fresh flair to the wardrobes of Wu-Tang Clan enthusiasts and streetwear aficionados alike.

"TICAL is not just a brand; it's a reflection of our love for Hip Hop and the street culture," remarked Joshua ?Raz? Rassin, TICAL's co-founder and COO. "With every product, be it our sunglasses or our designer wear, we aim to capture the essence of the streets, coupled with a touch of luxury."

The brand's name, TICAL, has deep roots in Hip Hop's vernacular, and its association with marijuana culture makes it the perfect moniker for this exciting venture. As the world of cannabis continues to evolve, with more states legalizing its use, the demand for high-end marijuana accessories and fashion is only set to grow. TICAL, with its unique offerings, is positioned to lead this burgeoning market.

In an industry that often sees fleeting trends, TICAL aims to be timeless, blending the rich heritage of Hip Hop with contemporary urban fashion. With Method Man at its helm, a figure who has been an integral part of the Hip Hop scene for decades, and the expertise of Apothecarry, TICAL is poised to become the go-to brand for those who want the best in marijuana fashion and accessories.
