Key Things To Know Before Selecting An International Removal Company

November 30, 2023

London, England - November 30, 2023 -
PSS Removals, renowned as the top international removals company in the UK, advises individuals planning a move to thoroughly investigate and review the services offered by their selected international removal firm.

The first choice for thousands of UK residents, PSS International Removals has specialised in overseas shipping and removals for over 40 years. Every year, it helps thousands of customers move to worldwide destinations, taking care of every step of the removal process, from packing to shipping furniture and boxes.

The company?s moving services begin with a free home survey or video survey to provide movers with an accurate quote for their move. ?The free home survey can be done in person or over a video call,? says Liam Witham, CEO of PSS International Removals. ?Following the assessment of your moving needs, we can also advise you on the whole overseas removal and shipping process. We will factor in your chosen transit method and the volume of goods into your quote. Call us today to book an appointment and to get started.?

The full range of services PSS International Removals offers includes international box and car shipping. As a family-run business that only focuses on overseas removals, it can offer comprehensive door-to-door shipping and removals at a price that is economical and an unmatched service.

The accreditations that PSS International Removals has accrued over the years serve as a reminder that it operates at the highest standards for international removals and shipping. It is a member of the BAR (The British Association of Removers), protected by the BAR Advanced Payment Guarantee Scheme, a member of the FIDI Global Alliance, a member of the International Association of Movers, holds the FAIM Quality Certification, and many more such accreditations.

PSS International Removals has earned the love and admiration of UK residents that it has served over the years with hassle-free moving services. On its Trustpilot profile, the company boasts a stellar overall rating of 4.5 out of 5.0 from over 1100 reviews, a testament to its affordability, safe and secure shipping, and customer service.

A recent 5-star review says, ?This is our second time using PSS, and again the process was easy due to the staff being friendly, efficient, and professional. The first time we moved our whole household from Essex, U.K. to Gold Coast, Australia, and the second time, we moved our son?s belongings to Australia as he finished university in the UK, and we still had the same standard of service. No matter the size of the move/shipment you still get excellent service. Thank you.?

Another 5-star review says, ?My point of contact has been incredible in supporting me through the process and while I?ve been getting the items at home together. The crew sent to package the house was great. They worked relentlessly to make sure everything was done and to a good standard, I was impressed by their speed and stamina. It?s been a very stressful time undertaking such a big move and at every stage so far, the staff I have been in contact with have managed to make it a bit less stressful.?
