December 11, 2023

December 11, 2023 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

CINCINNATI, OH [December 11, 2023] - KAV Health Group, LLC, a renowned provider of comprehensive mental health care services, proudly announces the expanded availability of its East location in Blue Ash, Ohio. Previously only open three days a week, KAV's Blue Ash office is now open weekdays Monday through Friday, which is expected to significantly enhance accessibility and convenience for clients in the region.

The expanded days of operation for the facility, nestled in the heart of the Blue Ash, is a testament to KAV Health Group's unwavering commitment to providing top-notch mental health services in a patient-centric environment. This strategic expansion caters to the growing need for accessible mental health care, ensuring that more clients can benefit from KAV's exceptional services.

"As we expand operation of our East location in Blue Ash, we're making our specialized mental health care services more accessible to the community," said Executive Director Kimberly Handegard. "This facility is not just a building; it's a beacon of hope and support for our clients. It embodies our dedication to making quality mental health care more accessible to all who need it in the Cincinnati region."

The Blue Ash location will offer the full spectrum of KAV Health Group's services, including individual therapy, group sessions, and wellness programs, all tailored to meet the diverse needs of their clientele, from Monday through Friday. The setting is designed to provide a tranquil and therapeutic environment, ensuring a comfortable and conducive space for mental health care.

"At KAV Health Group, our mission has always been to offer holistic and comprehensive mental health care," said Handegard. "Opening our Blue Ash location five days a week is a strategic step in fulfilling this mission. It allows us to extend our reach and impact, ensuring that more individuals have access to the compassionate and specialized care they deserve."

This expansion of services in Blue Ash is part of KAV Health Group's broader strategy to enhance mental health care services across the Cincinnati region. By increasing its presence, KAV is positioned to play a pivotal role in addressing the growing demand for mental health services, a need that has become ever more apparent in recent times.

The opening of the new location is also a response to the feedback and needs expressed by the community. KAV Health Group has continuously sought to listen to and incorporate the needs and preferences of its clients, ensuring that its services are not only effective but also responsive to the evolving landscape of mental health care.

KAV Health Group LLC's East location in Blue Ash is open and accepting new clients under its new days of operation. With this facility, KAV Health Group continues to set the standard for exceptional mental health care, ensuring that every individual in the Cincinnati area has the opportunity to access the care and support they need.
