Santa Ana, CA - Traut Firm, one of Southern California's most distinguished and client-focused law firms, continues to stand out for its unwavering commitment to representing individuals who have been wronged. With a solid foundation built on decades of legal expertise, the team at Traut Firm, led by acclaimed brothers James and Eric Traut, champions the cause of those who have suffered serious accidents or fallen victim to professional negligence.

"From the onset, our mission has been to deliver justice and fair compensation to people, not corporations or insurance companies," said James R. Traut, co-founder of Traut Firm. Boasting a cumulative 58 years of litigation experience between them, James and Eric Traut have become beacons of legal excellence in the community, known for their six- and seven-figure jury verdicts and settlements that have materially benefitted their clients' lives.

With a history rich in accolades and peer recognition, the Traut brothers exemplify the heights of legal achievement. James Traut, recipient of the prestigious American Board of Trial Advocates and the "Trial Lawyer of the Year" award from the Orange County Trial Lawyers Association, is a testament to the firm's prowess in the courtroom. Eric Traut mirrors this recognition, also having been honored as "Trial Lawyer of the Year", cementing the firm's reputation for excellence in legal advocacy.

What sets Traut Firm apart is not just the awards, but the enduring recognition from their peers, marked by their consecutive annual selection as Southern California Super Lawyers. "It remains an immense honor to be included among the top 5 percent of lawyers recognized by the Super Lawyers magazine," Eric Traut remarked. Both brothers hold the coveted AV Preeminent+ peer rating, and are distinguished as two of only 100 California attorneys certified as civil trial specialists by the National Board of Trial Advocacy.

In their unwavering quest for justice, James and Eric are active members of leading legal associations, including the Orange County Trial Lawyers Association and the Consumer Attorneys Association of California, among others. Eric has even held the presidential gavel for both the Orange County Trial Lawyers Association and Orange County ABOTA.

Aside from their renowned legal practice, Traut Firm has made a significant contribution to the arena of legal malpractice, where they advocate for clients who have been adversely affected by negligent attorneys. "Everyone deserves high-quality legal representation. When a legal professional fails to provide this, we step in to ensure our clients are justly compensated," explained James Traut, further solidifying the firm's dedication to all aspects of client advocacy.
