

Auto Repair Company in Dana Point California Has a New Owner

December 15, 2023

San Juan Capistrano, CA - December 15, 2023 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

West Coast Tire & Services, an auto repair company based in San Juan Capistrano, CA, and also serves Dana Point, has been purchased by Todd Bennett, who has pledged to continue to provide the same five-star service that customers have been used to. They can provide auto repair, diesel repair, and auto maintenance. Dana Point is a city found in southern Orange County. Dana Point and neighbor, San Juan Capistrano, are regarded as the only romantic spots on the coast.

They can provide auto repair services with their team of ASE certified mechanics in Dana Point, San Clemente, Laguna Niguel, and San Juan Capistrano. A spokesperson for West Coast Tire & Services says, "We offer comprehensive auto maintenance services, including tire sales, installation, and repair, brake repair, engine diagnostics, and more. Our shop is known for its honest and transparent pricing, and the team is dedicated to providing exceptional customer service to every client. Whether you need routine maintenance or major repairs, West Coast Tire & Services is the place to go for all your auto repair needs."

They do not just offer the services of a team of well-trained ASE certified technicians, they also: use state-of-the-art dealer-level diagnostic equipment; work with extended warranties; offer financing options; and offer the best auto repair and maintenance prices.

West Coast Tire & Services can also offer their repair and maintenance services for diesel engines. Their technicians are diesel experts and are equipped with the tools and knowledge to ensure the diesel engine keeps running smoothly. They employ state-of-the-art technology and equipment to diagnose and repair the diesel engine efficiently and quickly. It is important to note that diesel engines are different from gasoline engines in a number of ways, and it is vital to understand them to achieve optimal performance. By working with experienced diesel mechanics, including those from West Coast Tire & Services, diesel vehicle owners can avoid expensive repairs and keep the engine in the best shape. They can help: change the engine oil; check the fluid levels regularly; check the oil filter; check the fuel filter; and provide a diagnostic test regularly.

West Coast Tire & Services also offers auto maintenance services. Their team of expert technicians employ advanced equipment and techniques to provide maintenance services, such as oil changes, brake service, wheel alignment, and more. Regular maintenance is essential in extending the life of the vehicle, ensure safe driving, and avoid expensive repairs. Their maintenance services include: auto air conditioning service, muffler-exhaust service, tire repair service, fuel filter replacement, tire alignment service, tire rotation service, automatic transmission service, free tire consultation, fuel injector cleaning, batteries service, serpentine belt replacement, wheel balancing service, wiper blades replacement service, headlamp and bulbs service, radiator service, replacement of radiator hoses, brake job service, check engine light codes, provision of all brands of tires, replacement of shocks and struts, suspension service, cooling system service, car window repair, engine rebuilding service, auto factory maintenance service, auto electrical service, and tune up service.

Started in 2006, West Coast Tires & Services is a comprehensive auto service and auto repair and maintenance shop in San Juan Capistrano, CA, which is a certified GoodYear Auto Service Center Tire Dealer. They have earned the reputation of providing five-star auto car care services with their team of quality ASE (Automotive Service Excellence) certified technicians. Applying the most advanced automotive technology, they are capable of handling all minor and major repairs on both domestic and foreign vehicles. As a certified GoodYear service center, they can offer the advantages of an established national entity, such as the GoodYear six months no interest credit card. They have become known as a provider of honest and professional automotive repair and maintenance services and the most competitive prices in Orange County. New owner Todd Bennett promises to maintain the company's five-star reputation.
