Nugent, P.C., a law firm based in Albany, GA, is encouraging family of wrongful death victims to schedule a consultation with them if they believe the loss of their loved one was due to the wrongful actions or negligence of another. The firm is capable of handling a broad range of wrongful death cases in Albany, such as medical malpractice, workplace negligence, product liability, car wreck accidents, and more. Their team of wrongful death lawyers are ready to guide the client through their case with compassion, offering the necessary legal representation at every step of the way.

Chris Dietz, manager at Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C., says, "With over two decades of experience advocating for clients in personal injury cases within Georgia courts, we develop innovative strategies tailored to address your specific needs while pursuing justice on your behalf. Our utmost priority is assisting clients in securing maximum compensation for funeral expenses, medical bills, lost income, and other damages associated with their loss."

Their team of wrongful death lawyers is readily available for consultation 24/7, and they also offer home visits when needed, especially when the client finds it difficult to schedule some travel to their office. The law firm of Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. has achieved multi-million dollar settlements and verdicts on behalf of his clients in regard to wrongful death and negligence cases. With his wide breadth of knowledge about such cases, he can deliver strong legal guidance and even emotional support during this difficult time that families have been affected by wrongful death.

The wrongful death lawyers will take the time to fully comprehend the specific needs of each client as they navigate through the complexities of legal process to attain the best possible outcome. They guarantee that each client will get honest communication at every state of the legal process, enabling them to make informed decisions regarding the case.

Chris Dietz says, "Our firm has a proven record of successful outcomes in wrongful death litigation. Our experienced and knowledgeable attorneys have the resources and legal expertise to craft a compelling case on behalf of your loved one's estate and family members. We strive to obtain full compensation for all losses and damages suffered due to the negligence or wrongdoing of another party. Our team is dedicated to providing compassionate and personalized service throughout the entire legal process, from initial consultations to verdicts or settlements. We will work hard to ensure that justice is served in your wrongful death case and that you receive the most favorable outcome possible.?

Filing a wrongful death claim is a complicated process and thus requires the assistance of an experienced lawyer. The process typically begins with filing a notice of claim and then collecting evidence to support the claim. This includes medical records, witness statements, accident reports, and any other relevant documents. After this, the lawyer will draft and then submit a complaint in court on behalf of the client. This will provide the details as why the client has grounds for filing a wrongful death case. Finally, the lawyer will negotiate with the lawyers of the other party or take the case to trial if needed.

Established in 1989, Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. has a group of personal injury lawyers who are ready to assist victims in receiving the compensation they deserve. Their lawyers come from a diversified range racial and socio-economic backgrounds, are multilingual, and have earned several awards. They have also authored several articles in various law school journals, including the Georgia State Bar Journal. They are licensed to practice law in a number of states, such as Georgia, Alabama, Florida, North Carolina, West Virginia, Texas, Tennessee, and South Carolina. They are calling on those who believed they have a personal injury case to request for a free initial case assessment.
