December 22, 2023 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Kenneth S. Nugent P.C., one of the top personal injury firms in Athens, GA, would like to offer their legal services to residents who wish to file a wrongful death claim. Understanding how difficult it can be to navigate this legal process while grieving, the firm makes it a point to provide gentle yet practical guidance to every client they work with.

The loss of a loved one is always accompanied by an unbearable emotional burden, and it is an unfortunate fact that material concerns will often make the situation feel even worse. Should the loved one have passed as a result of another party's negligence, however, the surviving members of their family may have grounds to pursue a wrongful death claim. Given how difficult it can be to focus on such an endeavor, it is strongly recommended that survivors work with an experienced attorney who can shoulder this responsibility on their behalf.

This is why Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. offers the assistance of their team of dedicated legal specialists. With their help, facing the challenges associated with the death of a loved one becomes a lot easier ? as does securing justice wherever it can be secured.

The Athens firm places the utmost importance on understanding the unique struggles faced by families after the passing of a loved one. Their comprehensive array of legal services are designed to build upon this foundation of mutual understanding and trust, and the firm believes this is the best way to assure a positive outcome in any case. This translates to a meticulous investigation of every case, evidence gathering and being aggressive on the client's behalf where necessary. Whether the case is settled out of court or becomes part of a long legal process involving multiple appeals and claims, the team is always prepared to advocate for the rights of their client.

"Our law firm handles a wide range of wrongful death cases in Athens, including medical malpractice, car accidents, workplace negligence, product liability and more," says Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. "With over two decades of experience litigating personal injury cases in Georgia courts, we develop innovative strategies tailored to meet the individual needs of our clients while tirelessly seeking justice on their behalf. Our utmost commitment is to help our clients secure maximum compensation to cover funeral expenses, medical bills, lost income and other damages associated with their loss."

Client satisfaction is always one of the top concerns at Kenneth S. Nugent P.C. This means ensuring that the client receives a favorable verdict, that they receive a fair amount of compensation and that the individual needs of each family they work with are met. The Athens firm's commitment to client satisfaction means that they are able to guarantee the highest quality legal representation throughout the process. From first contact to filing a claim, proceeding through negotiations and beyond, Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C.'s wrongful death attorneys work hard to ensure the rights of their clients are upheld and that their voice is heard – especially where it might otherwise be drowned out by insurance companies and their lawyers.

"I am very proud to be the managing attorney of Ken Nugent's Athens office," says Brad Valentine from Kenneth S. Nugent P.C.'s Athens office. "We have a wonderful staff that cares deeply about our clients. Ken Nugent, his family and the firm's leadership are all great people with top-notch character. Our team here at the Athens office is focused on obtaining the best results possible for those who have been injured."

The cost of hiring a lawyer is one of the reasons why some may choose to forego the financial compensation that should be rightfully theirs (or accept low offers to settle out of court). According to the firm, this cost can vary depending on a number of factors. Hourly rates generally range from $150 to $400 per hour or even more. Lawyers may also charge flat fees instead. Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. recognizes that clients will want to have a frank discussion on the subject before any steps are taken, and their team will always be more than happy to oblige.

Those in search of a reliable wrongful death lawyer may visit the firm's website for more information. They may also call Kenneth S. Nugent P.C. directly to inquire further about wrongful death cases and how to go about filing a successful claim. See more here: Wrongful Death Lawyer Athens.
