It is easy to get overwhelmed in the holiday rush and make silly mistakes that turn into huge time wasters. Misplacing or forgetting car keys is at the top of the list, a fact that The Key Guys has experience handling time and time again. Over the years, it has helped thousands of customers during these festive times get back on schedule after losing access to their vehicles at the most inopportune time. The company offers a range of services for cars of all makes and models that are sure to get anyone?s spoiled vacation plans back on track.

?We know how important it is to get help in an emergency situation,? says the spokesperson for The Key Guys, ?especially during the holiday season when time is precious, and you can?t wait to get your chores done and be back safely with your family. Our car key services are designed to help you get out of a sticky situation easily and fast. Wherever you are marooned, whether it is at home, on a mall parking lot, or at work, give us a call and we will come straight to you!?

The company?s car key services for car owners in the Twin Cities area include replacing lost or stolen keys, getting broken car keys repaired, providing spare (backup) keys, removing broken keys, programming keys, programming transponders, replacing batteries, cutting new keys, getting ignition and doors fixed, and more. The Key Guys are available 24/7 to help out their customers regardless of the situation they are in with their car keys.

The Key Guys have received overwhelmingly positive feedback from local customers who thank them for being there when they needed help the most. Its Google Business Profile, which has a near-flawless overall rating from over 1000 reviews, is filled with stories of customers sharing how The Key Guys got them out of a tough situation quickly and professionally. Customers also thank the company?s crew for their clear communication, timely response, and supportive customer service.

A recent review from a customer who needed help on Christmas Eve says, ?Robot was very awesome. He came on Xmas Eve. My father passed away and the keys to his vehicle were accidentally run over by a lawn mower. I and my siblings are truly grateful that there is a company that cares like The Key Guys. Robot was quick and professional and his attitude was beyond great. Thanks Again, The Key Guys, and especially Robot for working on Xmas Eve and a Sunday. I could go on and on like I just did and end this with a big THANK YOU.?

Another customer writes, ?Robot responded extremely fast, was direct, and had the key to my push start car ready within 7 minutes of his arrival. I had previously called 4 other locksmith/key places, and all estimated between $60-200 more than the price I paid with Robot. The dealership price was far higher than those estimates. This is my second time using The Key Guys and they have not disappointed during both.?

The spokesperson appeals to customers to be wise when choosing locksmiths to get their key fobs replaced by saying, ?There are many rip-off artists out there that you need to be wary of. First, according to the Federal Trade Commission (FTC), not all locksmiths who claim to be local actually are. They might not be professionally trained and might even resort to intimidation tactics to overcharge you. Next, they might quote you a price on the phone but ask for more money when they arrive on-site. The solution is to do your research and always keep the contact information for a reliable and trustworthy locksmith ready regardless of whether you think you?ll need it. For Minneapolis and St. Paul residents this holiday season, there is no other better partner than The Key Guys.?
