

Bath Property Letting Agency Provides Assistance Services To Landlords And Tenants

January 27, 2016

January 27, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Bath, United Kingdom-based Intire Letting Agents Bath is providing assistance to landlords and tenants by ensuring that they are matched in the correct way. In a recent piece of news, it was revealed that there is now such a rise in demand in rental properties that landlords are having to come up with innovative ways to meet this demand. The Bath property letting service is proving to be very popular.

Atif Javid from Intire Letting Agents Bath says: "Our goal is to make sure that our landlords receive a fantastic service from us, but equally that tenants know that they are comfortable and safe in their properties and that they are well looked after. We're happy to see that this is providing so many benefits for the community as a whole."

Intire Letting Agents Bath & Bristol is known across the region for their top-notch service. As Bath letting agents, they have won numerous awards over the past four years for their services. One of the things they are particularly respected for is the fact that they set themselves apart from others by offering services to landlords for an all-inclusive fee. This means there are no hidden charges or other surprise costs.

The service they provide has been very positively received by landlords and tenants alike. "Intire focuses on delivering a great service to landlords and tenants," says Louise B. "They were so thorough in their approach to letting my properties but this didn't cause any delay in them taking the necessary actions and finding good quality tenants immediately. First living overseas and now in London, I have absolute confidence in leaving my property needs in their capable hands. I cannot recommend their services highly enough."

Intire Letting Agents Bath has also recently posted a YouTube video through , which further highlights the services that they offer, as well as providing more information about the various awards that the company has won over the past four years. It demonstrates how the letting agent is committed to achieving excellent results for its landlords and for their tenants.
