Chris Lewis & Associates Reinforces Commitment to Car Accident Victims with Enhanced Personal Injury Legal Services in Dallas

December 27, 2023

Dallas, Texas - December 27, 2023 -
Chris Lewis & Associates, P.C., a law firm based in Dallas, TX, is pleased to announce that they are reinforcing their commitment to car accident victims through their enhanced legal services in Dallas and neighboring areas. A personal injury lawyer from the law office is ready to thoroughly investigate the case of each client, gather usable evidence, and negotiate with the insurance company on behalf of the car accident victim to get the settlement they deserve for their losses caused by the accident. Their practice areas for accident victims are: personal injury, car accidents, motorcycle accidents, truck accidents, and wrongful death.

A spokesperson for Chris Lewis & Associates says, ?Car accidents can have devastating consequences. Reach out to a qualified car accident attorney in Dallas for help holding the at-fault party accountable for their negligence so that you can get compensated for your injuries and property damage.?

When filing a car accident claim, the skilled and experienced lawyers at Chris Lewis & Associates can help in a number of ways. They can help in thoroughly investigating the car accident to make sure that the at-fault party is served with a lawsuit for their negligence and for the damage and losses suffered by the victim.

The accident lawyers will also write demand letters and deal with the insurance companies, which are typically tough to deal with. They have the legal knowledge and experience to take care of the paperwork, negotiations, and demand letters, so accident victims would be able to focus on their recovery.

They will also fight for their client to get maximum value settlement or jury award. They will negotiate with the insurance company to get the optimum compensation possible for every damage and loss suffered by their client due to the accident. If this cannot be achieved with negotiations with the insurer, they will take the case to court. They advise car accident victims to take a number of steps after the accident. The first step is to seek medical treatment, even if the injuries don?t seem to be serious. They can consult with a trusted doctor, who will document their accident injuries and ensure that these are included in the victim?s medical records.

The second step is to obtain some pictures of the scene of the accident and of the car to help build practical evidence that can be used to file a successful claim. The third step is to file an accident report with the Dallas Police Department. The police report will help the car accident claim by including details that the insurance adjusters may take into account when responding to a demand letter.

The final step is to determine the value of the damage claim. This is important because insurance companies are always concerned with their bottom line and will always try to offer the lowest possible amount for the car accident claim. That is is why it is not advisable to accept an initial settlement offered before a car accident lawyer has taken a look at it.

Launched in 2004, Chris Lewis & Associates, P.C. was established by Chris Lewis, who is frequently included in the list of the best trial lawyers in Texas. He is committed to making sure that they will provide aggressive, effective, and seasoned representation. The firm has been providing excellent results for many clients. He received his law degree from Baylor Law School after which he served as an assistant district attorney for Dallas County, Williamson County, and Harris County. After that, he moved to civil litigation and worked at one of the top civil trial firms in Texas.
