In a landscape dominated by personal injury billboards, Greenstein & Milbauer, LLP distinguishes itself as a unique entity. The personal injury practice in New York is highly competitive and saturated. Larger firms often invest millions of dollars annually in advertising. The firm's philosophy is rooted in a client-centric approach. Robert Greenstein, one of the partners at the firm, explains, ?Our focus is on our clients. Providing excellent legal expertise is a given when you represent clients, but that alone is not enough. Personal Injury cases can be long-winded and complex. Our firm makes a concerted effort to maintain regular communication with our clients. This way, they can understand the process and feel valued as individuals rather than just case numbers. We genuinely care about them.?

This personalized service has struck a chord with the firm?s clientele. They often express feeling like a lifelong client. A former client, Vilma Aurich, praises the firm in her review: ?Everyone I worked with at Greenstein & Milbauer was very professional and accessible. They were always available to answer questions and provide updates on my case. If I had to leave a message, they always returned my calls promptly.?

Greenstein & Milbauer, LLP is unwaveringly dedicated to assisting individuals who have been injured due to the negligence of others. They have earned a reputation as trusted advocates for their clients, consistently delivering results and going above and beyond to ensure justice is served.

Their presence spans New York City, Harlem, Queens, Bronx, Brooklyn, and Staten Island, as well as Westchester & Nassau Counties. This extensive network enables them to provide their high-quality services to a broad range of clients.

The firm operates under the motto "Don?t Be a Victim Twice." This powerful statement encapsulates their mission to fight for their clients' rights. They encourage potential clients to call 1-800-VICTIM2 (1-800-842-8462) for a confidential and informed consultation. The call and consultation are free, reinforcing the firm's commitment to making their services accessible to all.

Greenstein & Milbauer, LLP represents their clients on a contingency basis, meaning they don't get paid unless they win the case. This arrangement ensures that their services are accessible to everyone, regardless of their financial situation.

Despite the challenges of today's rapidly evolving digital landscape, Greenstein & Milbauer, LLP continues to adapt and thrive, providing top-tier legal services with a personalized touch. Ultimately, Greenstein & Milbauer, LLP is more than just a law firm. It's a team of dedicated professionals who understand that their clients are people first, with real fears, concerns, and needs.
