Markhoff & Mittman P.C., a long-standing advocate for social justice and community well-being, is honored to express its profound support for the upcoming unveiling of the Triangle Fire Memorial, scheduled for October 11, 2023. This touching memorial will commemorate the victims and enduring legacy of the 1911 Triangle Shirtwaist Factory fire, a historic event etched in the records of New York City's history. The Triangle Fire Memorial, rising nine stories high, will find its rightful place at the very site that housed the Triangle Shirtwaist Factory, situated at the corner of Greene Street and Washington Place in Greenwich Village. This remarkable memorial is a monument to remembrance, compassion, and resilience.

What makes the Triangle Fire Memorial truly special is its ability to tell the story of the fire in the languages spoken by its victims: English, Yiddish, and Italian. It is a poignant tribute that pays homage to the diversity and unity of the workers who lost their lives in this tragic incident. This memorial is not just about honoring history; it is one of the few memorials in America dedicated to workers?a powerful symbol of the rights and dignity of labor.

The Remember The Triangle Fire Coalition, an organization steadfast on preserving the memory of the Triangle Shirtwaist Factory fire, commissioned this iconic memorial. Designed by the talented Uri Wegman and Richard Joon Yoo, the Triangle Fire Memorial is a masterpiece that stands as a symbol of reminiscence and progress.
