NEW YORK, NY ? Markhoff & Mittman is thrilled to have played a significant role in the resounding success of the 3rd Annual Mini Olympics Event, which was hosted by the Firmament Foundation, a Pediatric Cancer Foundation, at the renowned Chelsea Piers on September 13th. "Markhoff and Mittman are immensely proud to have participated in the 3rd Annual Mini Olympics Event hosted by the Firmament Foundation. The commitment to advocating for our community extends beyond the courtroom, and supporting initiatives like this reinforces our dedication to making a meaningful difference in the lives of those that are served in the area."

The Firmament Foundation has been an unwavering advocate for pediatric cancer awareness, and their efforts have been nothing short of remarkable. In the previous year, the foundation orchestrated the 2nd Annual Mini-Olympics Event at Chelsea Piers, raising a substantial $50,000 to support their cause. This year, they came close to doubling that amount, pushing their total fundraising to just shy of $100,000 over the past two years. This achievement brings us $100,000 closer to our shared goal of finding a cure for childhood cancer, a cause that tugs at the heartstrings of our entire community.

At Markhoff & Mittman, The Disability Guys, workers' compensation lawyers are not only dedicated to providing unparalleled legal expertise to New Yorkers facing Workers' Compensation and Social Security disability cases but are also deeply committed to supporting initiatives that make a genuine impact in our community. Markhoff and Mittman firmly believe in the power of collective action and are proud to contribute to the Firmament Foundation's tireless efforts to eradicate childhood cancer. "The Firmament Foundation's unwavering dedication to raising awareness and funds for pediatric cancer is truly inspiring. Their tireless efforts remind us all of the urgent need to find a cure for childhood cancer. Markhoff and Mittman are honored to stand with them in this crucial mission to bring hope and healing to the youngest members of the community."

All members of the public are cordially invited to join together at the Chelsea Piers on September 13th for a day filled with fun, competition, and, most importantly, unwavering support for a cause that touches the lives of countless families worldwide. Lets stand together in the fight against pediatric cancer, united in our determination to make a difference.
