Cambridge, CB - January 03, 2024 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Access Interiors Ltd., a UK-based company providing interior fit-out solutions for commercial and industrial projects, has announced the launch of its new website.

Established in 1994, Access Interiors Ltd provides office interior solutions to meet any performance specification and budget. The company has access to a vast range of modern interior products and can undertake a wide variety of projects from minor interior fit-outs and refurbishments to extensive commercial projects. Serving Cambridge and the East Anglia region, Access Interiors Ltd prides itself on the amount of repeat work it gets from clients who are impressed with the quality of its services.

The spokesperson for the company talks about the launch of its new website by saying, "After over 28 years of office design and fit-out experience, there is no project that we can't deliver great results on. Our expertise extends to everything from offices to warehouses and factories, all of which we can outfit with turnkey installations that save you both time and money. With the launch of our newest website, we welcome you to find out more about our work, the services we offer, and what our clients have said about us over the years. It is easy to navigate, chock full of useful information, and should answer all your questions. So, contact us using the form on the website or give us a call today to get started on your commercial interiors project.?

On its new website, Access Interiors Ltd has shared several examples of the work it has done for customers in Cambridge and the East Anglia region. Website visitors can view videos of the finished spaces, read detailed briefs, and browse a list of work items that were handled on each site. The portfolio includes locations such as Cambridge Education Group, Sentec Radio House, St John Ambulance in Cambridge, Third Light in Cambridge Research Park, Smurfit Kappa in Cambridgeshire, New Premises for Expedeon in Harston & Swavesey, and many more.

Access Interiors Ltd has also provided several knowledge resources on its new portal explaining crucial aspects of its business that clients can benefit from. This includes blogs on topics such as office space planning, a checklist for office relocation, agile working, hybrid working, office energy efficiency tips, how office space affects productivity, office fit-outs, open-plan office layouts, fire safety in the workplace, and more.

The company's office design services include office refurbishments, office space planning, office dilapidations, office relocations, office move management, and commercial interiors project management. Its office interior services include office furniture, suspended ceilings, office partition systems, commercial flooring installation, mezzanine floors, commercial electrical installation, and commercial air conditioning systems.

Access Interiors Ltd has built up a solid reputation in Cambridge and nearby areas for always delivering high-quality work as a key specialist office design and interior services company. It has received several testimonials from satisfied clients who praise the company for its attentive and knowledgeable staff, responsive crew members who provide timely updates, innovative design solutions, and ability to work within time and budget constraints.

G. Holderness from Cover Charity Group says, "Access Interiors are reliable, with good workmanship and polite, tidy workmen. They did exactly what was requested and did not grumble when we changed our minds over some of the details. The product was delivered to a high specification within the timeframe and within budget, that is why we have asked Access Interiors back this month for advice on our next project.?"

J. Everitt from Norfolk City Council says, "Of all the companies we invited to quote for our new mezzanine, Access Interiors followed the brief most closely, and this inspired confidence. They were not the cheapest overall but the price per square foot was very competitive. Really good to work with - work done well, on time and on budget.?"
