Wonderful Wags Launches New Dog Treats

January 07, 2016

January 07, 2016 -
A new, web-based, pet supplies business based in Farmington, UT, has announced that they are now offering premium, high quality, all natural dog treats. These are 100% made in the USA, using nothing but ingredients sourced in the USA. The new dog treats are quickly becoming popular among dog lovers.

"You cannot have dogs and not also have a stack of treats in your house, your coat pocket and your bag," says Renee Coulter from Wonderful Wags, the pet supplies company. "Most dog owners love giving their dog treats but worry about the ingredients. They are just such wonderful training tools and rewards that we want to offer something that is a healthier option. We want to make sure that the treats you give to your dog are of the highest quality, so that you never have to feel guilty about treating your four-legged friend. My own dog loves them and that's a great endorsement! We won't sell anything that we haven't gotten her approval on."

Wonderful Wags first announced the launch of their new treats on Facebook. This is also where they explained that they have three different, all natural flavors available. These are Beef Meaty Sticks, Salmon Balls and Turkey Sticks. Each flavor also comes in two different sizes. The key focus, however, is that they are completely natural and made in the USA from ingredients sourced in the USA. This enables the company to guarantee the quality of the treats.

While having only recently been released, the dog treats are already receiving many positive reviews. "I purchased the salmon balls for my Labrador Retriever," says John T. "These healthy dog treats are now a firm favorite with my young dog and they have been great in terms of helping me train her. The treat is completely free from corn and grain, so I can give these to my dog whenever she has been a good girl without feeling guilty. If you know Labradors, you will also know how good they are at getting treats out of you, as they fully think with their stomach. My Poppy now knows exactly where I keep the treats and she will do everything to get her paws on them."

The new dog treats are available through the Wonderful Wags Amazon listing, where their other products can also be found.
