A recent review says, ?This was my first time working with Big Thunder Events and they were phenomenal. They answered any questions I had promptly. I wanted a carnival-themed party, and they made my vision come to life. All of the games were in great condition, even when the original placement of the Ballistic ride didn?t work but they figured it out and saved the day. I?m told that I am the first person to have a carnival ride set up in their front yard. Definitely recommend these guys and look forward to working with them again soon.?

Another customer writes, ?We were so happy with the princess carriage bounce house/slide combo. They dropped it off early and picked it up late. The kids were thrilled! The guys who dropped it off and picked it up were very friendly and we will be using them every year now! I will suggest to anyone who will be booking to PLAN AHEAD. They can get booked up fast. They were out of what we wanted but this was amazing!?

Customers can visit the Big Thunder Events website to check availability and make bookings online. The company asks customers for a party date, start time, and end time. It also allows overnight and multi-day bookings.
