December 29, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Perfectly Vivid, a company based in Coronado, CA, has recently launched a new YouTube video to showcase their product, which is a tactical flashlight. It clearly demonstrates how the lightweight flashlight is used not just by military professionals, but also by those who are looking for a reliable, long lasting piece of outdoor equipment. The video has already been viewed thousands of times as the flashlight is becoming increasingly popular. Full details are available at www.perfectlyvivid.com/.

"Our new Youtube video featuring our tactical flashlight really explains what the device is all about," says Dr. Christopher Vogelmann, owner of Perfectly Vivid. "When people hear of a tactical flashlight, they immediately think it is only suitable for survivalists and people in the military. However, we feel it is a necessary piece of equipment for every household and feel our video clearly explains why."

The video showcases how the flashlight can be purposed in a variety of outdoor situations. While it is certainly beneficial for people in the armed forces, including marines and other tactical units, it is equally useful for those who are just out camping. Similarly, it's ideal in children's bedrooms so that they have a light to read by, or to simply feel secure should the power goes out. Its uses are almost limitless.

The company also encourages those who are interested to visit their Facebook page on <https://www.facebook.com/perfectlyvivid/?fref=ts> and discuss their personal experiences with the product. "I carry my Perfectly Vivid flashlight in my bag at all times," says Lisa T. "It's lightweight enough not to be annoying, and it's sturdy enough for me to know I would feel safer walking outside at night. It is a really multi-functional device and I can see how it can benefit people from all walks of life in any type of situation."

The new YouTube video can be viewed at <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=4opHbwqk68E>. In demonstrative photos of the flashlight in action, Perfectly Vivid focuses on why the product is suitable for everybody, regardless of their background. It also shows the ways in which the flashlight is durable, reliable and ready for those times when it is needed the most.
