C.Savva & Associates Ltd in Nicosia Expands Comprehensive Tax Advisory Services to Meet Evolving Business Needs

January 15, 2024

Nicosia, CY - January 15, 2024 -
Nicosia, Cyprus: Savva & Associates, a distinguished consulting firm located in the heart of Nicosia, proudly announces a significant expansion in its comprehensive taxation services. This strategic development is tailored to meet the growing complexities and demands of the business environment, providing robust solutions for both local and international clients.

In European business environments, Cyprus distinguishes itself with a notably business-friendly tax regime, setting the country apart as a premier destination for companies seeking fiscal efficiency. The country proudly offers one of the most competitive standard corporate tax rates in the European Union, a mere 12.5%, significantly lower than many of its counterparts. This advantageous rate is further complemented by Cyprus' impressive global reach through an extensive network of double tax treaties covering over 65 jurisdictions. These agreements effectively prevent double taxation for businesses operating across borders, enhancing Cyprus' appeal as a hub for international commerce.

The firm's enhanced suite of taxation services includes advanced Cyprus and international tax planning, corporate tax residency structuring, VAT advice and compliance, sophisticated Notional Interest Deduction (NID) strategies, and expert management of intellectual property taxation. Additionally, Savva & Associates specializes in personal income tax solutions, specifically focusing on Cyprus? non-domicile regime, which is celebrated as one of the most favorable personal income tax systems worldwide.

This expansion is spearheaded under the visionary leadership of Charles Savva, who has successfully fostered a culture of innovation and excellence within the firm. The team's unwavering commitment to staying ahead of regulatory changes and industry trends guarantees that clients are provided with the most up-to-date and efficient strategies.

Since its establishment in 2009, Savva & Associates, recognized as Cyprus? most rapidly expanding provider of professional services, has garnered widespread acclaim for its deeply client-focused approach. This is reflected in its extensive portfolio, showcasing long-standing partnerships with various clients, from ambitious individual entrepreneurs to major global corporations. The firm's unwavering commitment to crafting customized solutions, combined with its extensive knowledge of local and international business environments, firmly establishes it as a dependable ally for clients tackling the complexities of tax management and corporate framework design.

The firm's team of seasoned professionals includes tax advisors, accountants, legal experts, and consultants. Many team members bring international experience and multilingual capabilities, allowing for a subtle understanding of the global business landscape. This diverse expertise enables the firm to provide comprehensive guidance and innovative solutions across various sectors.

Clients of Savva & Associates benefit from a blend of personalized attention and cutting-edge strategies. Whether advising on local tax implications, structuring multinational operations, or navigating international tax landscapes, the firm is committed to delivering results that comply with legal standards and drive business growth and profitability.

This service expansion reaffirms Savva & Associates? commitment to excellence and its influential role in supporting Cyprus' economic development and their clients' success globally.
