Resilient Film Studios LLC is pleased to announce that prolific director and writer Sergio de Frutos Leno has joined the independent film production company. A man of many talents, Sergio has worked on a number of films, novels, video game projects and more. He is constantly producing works of fiction for all kinds of media, and by joining RFStudios, de Frutos has put himself in a position to collaborate on more projects with some of the most talented individuals in the industry.

Sergio de Frutos Leno was born in Madrid, Spain in 1983. He studied at the Virgen de Navalazarza Primary School of the ESO and Acceso a la Universidad in Madrid. As a writer, Sergio de Frutos has worked on a number of projects, including as a co-writer at Neo Saga Game Studios, an associate writer on With Sugar Please and countless other projects. His literary work includes film scripts such as: Bus, The Domino Effect, Not Another Teen Movie and more. His work on video games includes: the Zombeach Resort and The Chain Breakers.

“He is a great fan of the horror genre and films with unexpected endings,” says the Sergio de Frutos bio.

His dream has always been to work in the entertainment industry, cinema, comics or video games to create and develop new stories or scripts. His first short film in 2013 as a director and actor was “Regression,” in which a man looks back on the last minutes of his life, in a desperate situation in an apocalyptic world. In 2014 as an actor, Sergio participated in the short film “Fear View Mirror,” directed by Julio Gude.

Working with the same director, Sergio had a role as the second director in “The Law of God,” a low budget film. Sergio places no limits on the projects he chooses to work on, and he uses his unmatched imagination and talent to bring all kinds of stories to life on the big screen. Sergio de Frutos Leno is married and currently resides in Spain.

Resilient Films Studios LLC is proud to welcome Sergio to their team of creators and expects that his boundless talent will exceed expectations with the studio’s support. The film production company is always involved in the production of multiple movies at any given time, but they welcome the opportunity to consider new projects to add to their schedule.

The goal at RFStudios is to become a globally recognized, premium independent film production company. The RFStudios production team strives to create unique, memorable films for their audience by having some of the most talented creators collaborate in unique ways. This is made possible by researching collaboration possibilities and by constantly adding new talent to the list of creatives already associated with RFStudios.

Further, funding is what keeps many filmmakers from producing excellent films, so RFStudios seeks to remedy this by utilizing their own team’s solutions. They have access to a wide variety of sources of funding, for instance, all of which are ready and willing to consider the next great independent film. In addition to funding, Resilient Films Studios provides access to art and design capabilities, high quality teaser reel production and more, all with the aim being to help their filmmakers produce the best films they can.

At Resilient Films Studios, they understand that filmmaking is supposed to be a process that is enjoyable for the people behind the camera as well as the audiences who have the privilege of enjoying the final product. This is why they seek to ensure that their filmmakers enjoy the process of creation. The film production company’s vision and philosophy as described above can essentially be summarized in the acronym “CREATE,” more information on which can be found on their official website.
