

MadelynJanePhotography.com Announces Holiday Special for ?Infant Photography in West Palm Beach FL"

December 22, 2015

December 22, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

After many successful photography projects and campaigns in the past, MadelynJanePhotography.com has now launched a limited-time holiday special package for infant photography in West Palm Beach, Florida.

Infant photography can be pricy, especially with seasoned, professional photographers in the industry; however with Madelyn Jane?s holiday deals, you?re sure to hit the jackpot. As the holiday season is fast approaching, the new holiday package for infant photography offered by Madelyn has been causing a stir on social media. Run by professional photographer Nikki, who is based in Florida, Madelyn Jane Photography continues to cater to an array of satisfied repeat customers. The artist states her expertise is in infant and baby photography.

The artist has just announced a holiday special package for infant photography in West Palm Beach FL and said in an official press statement, ?Being a mother myself, I believe that the bond between children and their mothers is the most precious thing ever.? Having worked on all sorts of photography projects, she specializes in infant, baby and children photography because she wants mothers to be able to have perfect portraits of their children. She also photographs family portraits as well as mother and baby portraits.?

She further spoke of the Infant Photography Holiday Package in detail saying she has built a set for a holiday special that will be happening at her studio. Parents can bring their babies for a quick photo session in a professional studio. The package includes digital downloading and professional photographs at a low rate. These make for great holiday cards and portraits to hang around the house.?

The name of the business holds sentimental value because it came from her great grandmother Madelyn and her grandmother Jane. Her passion for photography really took off when she had her daughter. Madelyn Jane Photography

To me, photography stops time. It gives us the gift of remembrance. Those moments in life that we forget because our busy lives got in the way. I believe one of the best things we can pass on to our families is our life story in pictures.
