The Echinacea, also called the purple coneflower, is a part of the daisy family. Not only known for its beauty, the flowering plant also has many medicinal benefits which has earned it a place in traditional medicine. Its use was especially pronounced among the Native Americans who used it to treat various ailments. Today, it is popular as an over-the-counter herbal remedy for conditions such as the common cold or flu, pain, inflammation, migraines, and other health issues.

Sarah James introduces the brand-new shower curtain design by saying, "Once again, I have to present the perfect geometry of the Echinacea flower. If you're looking to add a touch of natural elegance to your surroundings or harness its potential health benefits, look no further than the humble Echinacea plant."

She continues, "Step into the enchanting world of Echinacea as I, Sarah James, a passionate photographer and nature enthusiast, present to you a captivating photograph of this remarkable flower. With its vibrant colors, unique structure, and numerous health benefits, the Echinacea plant has inspired me to capture its beauty and share it with the world.?

The photograph on the shower curtain was taken at Sanderskill Farm in Kerhonksen, NY. Echinacea blooms from early summer to the end of summer depending on weather conditions, the watering habits of the gardener, and nature's rainfall. In her photographs, Sarah James used a journalistic approach to capture the essence of the Echinacea plant, highlighting its vibrant colors and intricate details. Sarah urges buyers to purchase the shower curtain online by saying, "Each time you step into your shower, or meet this image as a bedspread or a wall hanging and catch a glimpse, you'll be transported to a world where beauty and wellness intertwine, leaving you with a renewed sense of joy and vitality. Enjoy!!?"

Available for $60 excluding tax, the shower curtain is 71 inches wide and 74 inches tall. It is made from 100% synthetic polyester which means that it is extremely strong and durable, retains its shape, and dries quickly. The curtain also comes with 12 buttonholes at the top for hook placement. The product listing recommends washing the item with only a cold machine wash with similar color garments using a gentle cycle. It can be tumble-dried on low settings or hung dried but under no circumstances should it be bleached or dry cleaned.
